TOO WILLING.

They do not fail to state that the "Douglas candidate," as they style Magoffin, has a smaller majority than Boyd, who is represented as unfriendly to popular sovereignty.—Times.

You are too willing like Barkis, Mr. Times. The "Republicans do fail to state that Magoffin was the 'Douglas candidate.'" They assert nothing of the sort. Magoffin was the Buchanan candidate, and went about denouncing Douglas and his unfriendly legislation dodge. He could not be coaxed or driven to say whether he would even vote for Douglas should he receive the Charleston nomination. The most favorable word that could be extorted from him was, that he should "support the nominee of the "Charleston Convention, but that he denounced "the Squatter Sovereignty doctrien of Douglas."

The Douglas Body-Guard for Charleston.

Some time ago we copied an article from the Buffalo Republic (Douglas organ) in which it was roundly asserted, that Douglas delegates to the Charleston Convention would be assassinated on account of their abolitionism, unless backed by a body-guard of ten thousand armed men; and the importance of taking this precaution was strongly urged. A Milwaukee correspondent of the Charleston News, who signs himself J. J. Sanders, writes that the programme suggested by the Republic is bound to be carried out, and that the "armed forces" will be levied from the different States in the following proportions, viz.:

Wisconsin will send a delegation of five hundred of her Democratic sons to accompany the delegates of the State Convention, to be chosen next month. These five hundred are all Douglas Democrats. Minnesota sends a delegation of three hundred Douglas men. Michigan eight hundred, Iowa five hundred, Ohio one thousand, Illinois fifteen hundred, Pennsylvania one thousand, New York one thousand, and nearly all the New England States one thousand each. This is a secret plan; and it is understood that Douglas will have at least twenty thousand friends in Charleston during the Convention.

Now let us hear what Gen. Quattlebum and his cohorts of Palmetto Chivalry, propose to do in such a contingency.

Saloons—Licensed and Unlicensed.

The number of saloon-keepers who have taken out licenses since the 1st of July, at which time all licenses expired, is 791. There are 1500 places for selling liquor in Chicago. It follows that there are 700 persons engaged in selling liquor within the city limits without license. We are within bounds in saying that the number of places in Chicago where liquor is sold is 1500. What can be more unjust and partial than the system which at this moment compels 791 men to pay $52 per annum each, for that which 700 men enjoy without paying anything? But who is it that sits in authority in high places and winks at this open violation of the law by 700 persons?—Democrat.

These assertions are untrue, and known to be be by John Wentworth, when he penned them. In the first place there are not 1,500 places in Chicago where liquor is sold; there are not 1,000 places. Secondly, it follows that there are not 700 persons, nor the quarter of the number selling liquor without license. Thirdly, no one "sits in authority in high places" and "winks at open violation of the law by 700 persons." All these charges and insinuations are lying gammon.

Licenses have never been so rigorously collected as this year. There are three vigilant men in each Division, who devote their time to looking after delinquents, and enforcing them to pay up or close up. Scores of liquor sellers have been prosecuted, and those who failed to pay were compelled to quit the business, and scores more have voluntarily abandoned the trade, being unable to raise the license money.

We are assured, by those who have searched the city from centre to circumference, that more than 250 saloons have closed up since June 30th, and quit the business of selling liquors. Hard times, poor patronage, and inability to raise the $52, are the causes for this great decrease in the number of saloons. In the central and business portions of the city there have not been so many discontinuances as in the outskirts. The little saloons whose sales hardly amount to a dozen glasses a day, have not been able to raise the license fee, and consequently have been obliged to shut up shop.

The Mayor's orders to the police are peremptory. All liquor sellers who have not taken out licences, are directed to be prosecuted to judgement and execution, and the money made or the shops closed. And never before have the authorities shown so much vigilance and perseverance.

Last year on the 17th of August, 689 licenses were taken out. This year the number is 795—being more than 100 greater than to the corresponding time last summer. The reason of this is, the greater vigilance on the part of the police in looking up the delinquents and prosecuting them.

An Old Acquaintance.

A few months since a statement went the rounds of the papers, that a wide-awake chap actually walked across or through the rapids of Niagara on stilts, and thus won a thousand dollar wager. It afforded some amusement to people this side of the Atlantic, but few supposed it would produce any great excitement in the old world. Some of our news-dealers, a few days ago received the London Illustrated News, in which this astonishing feat of stilt-walking is illustrated to the life "by our own artists on the spot." Not only is full credence clearly given to the entire story, but the bold stilt-walker is represented midway in the rapids, making rapid strides for the other shore. Hosts of excited people crowd the banks upon both sides of the river, and the foaming waters make their fearful plunge a short distance below. The accompanying accounts gravely state that the stilt-walker actually reached the Canada shore in safety, and "fell into the arms of two of his companions, who were tremblingly awaiting there to receive him." It closes with the insinuating question: is there not a great deal in the world more worthy the ambition even of an American Merry Andrew?"—Cin. Gazette.

Our young friend REYNOLDS, of this city, who wrote the account referred to above, for the PRESS AND TRIBUNE, one rainy day, at the delectable town of Cairo, where he was detained a few hours, will be not a little astonished by the run which his "thrilling narrative" is having. Given to the public as a burlesque, or rather as a caricature on the sensation style of the newspapers, it was extensively copied throughout the United States and Canada, as an account of an event which had actually happened. Crossing the water, it has received the honor of illustrations, and now, like Goldsmith's Indians who are said to have gone over Niagara in their canoes, will pass into history.

Still Harping on Harlots.

About once a fortnight Long John forwards to the Democrat from New Hampshire a diatribe against the city officers and about prostitutes. Little else than brothels and Browns run in his head,—at least he can write on no other subject. It seems to be the only one on which he feels at home. Three or four columns of Thursday's issue are filled with a reiteration of the old stuff about harlots, saloon-keepers and city officials. John is still under the influence of that "big drunk" at Jackson Hall, and sees snakes in his boots. His own toadies are tired and disgusted with his everlasting slang-whang about "courtesans" and "corruption." They begin to think that John is played out.

Election of Ethridge.

The official returns of the Ninth District of Tennessee have been received at Nashville. Emerson Ethridge, (Opposition,) is elected by seven majority over Atkins, (Democrat.) The vote stood, Ethridge 9,437, Atkins 9,430. Two years ago Atkins beat Ethridge 129 votes. It will be remembered that Ethridge opposed the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and acted with the Anti-Nebraska men in Congress. During the late canvass he defended and justified his former votes and speeches against the Nebraska bill, and his district has sustained the appeal. The sober second thought prevailed. The Democrats denounced him as a Southern free-soiler, but they took nothing by their motion.

Another Raid on Nicaragua.

The editor of the Vicksburg Whig says he has recently seen a letter from Gen. William Walker to a gentleman of that city, in which the writer states that "another tide of emigration will flow into Nicaragua, in a few weeks,

National Fair—Railroad Regulations.

Editors Press and Tribune:

The following very liberal arrangements have been already consummated with the within named Railroad Companies, and but little doubt is entertained that all the Western Roads will grant the same favors. Due notice will be given of the completion of such arrangements, now in progress:

The Illinois Central, Chicago Burlington & Quincy, Chicago & Galena, Chicago & Milwaukee, Chicago & Rock Island, Mississippi & Missouri, and Bureau Valley, Chicago & Northwestern (late St. Paul & Fond du Lac,) Racine & Mississippi (a new direct route between Chicago and Freeport, enabling visitors to attend both the State and National Fairs,) Peoria & Oquawka, Iowa and Nebraska, Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, Cincinnati & Lexington, Dayton & Lima, and Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne Railroads, will carry stock and other articles free, and all except the Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne road will carry visitors at half the usual fare. The Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne will carry passengers at a deduction of 40 per cent. from the usual rates. The Michigan Southern and Michigan Central will carry passengers and freight at half the usual rates. The Baltimore & Ohio road will carry stock, etc., at half the usual rates.

Full pay will be required for tickets going to the Fair, and these tickets stamped by the Recording Secretary, will be good for the return trip.

The freight of stock and other articles over the roads to the Fair must be prepaid. On the return of the same property, with a certificate on the original freight bill, stamped by the Recording Secretary of the Society, stating that the same was exhibited at the National Fair, the freight money will be refunded.

A week's notice should be given by owners of stock and other heavy articles intended for exhibition at the Fair, to the officers at the station where they design to ship.

The half-fare tickets to exhibitors at the Fair, and the arrangements for transporting stock and other articles for exhibition, will commence on Wednesday, Sept. 7th.

Articles for exhibition may be consigned to "Horace Capron, Superintendent National Fair, Chicago, Ill.," freight and expenses pre-paid. The owner, or his agent, must attend to placing the same on exhibition.

Any further information on the subject may be obtained by addressing

HORACE CAPRON, Supt. Seventh Nat. Fair,
Chicago, Ill.

Editors in this and neighboring States will confer a favor by giving the above and kindred notices due publicity.

Western Trade—Its wants.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Your words of caution to Western merchants in reference to contracting liabilities with importers are timely and wise; and though importers with scorched fingers, may handle your paper with evident tokens of uneasiness, and appeal to their organ, viz. the U. S. Economist, to set the matter all right again, nothing is surer than that the practical working out of the problem will answer all doubtful questions in the minds of those interested, in unison with your elimination of the subject. It will not do to swallow any statement till we know the motive power that promulgated it.

Perhaps a look behind the curtain from this stand point may explain the economist's calculations, that importations of gew-gaws to excess is a matter of little moment to us prodigiously rich Americans, even. Though our foreign friends will take nothing but gold for pay, and our grain gets musty in our granaries for want of purchasers—perhaps that policy is best—we shall see. The lessons of '57-8 surely cannot be yet forgotten by our merchants. To be forewarned is to be forearmed—therefore sound the alarm. SOUND POLICY.

Croton Water.

At the request of the Croton Board, and in company with the President and Assistant Engineer, I visited the Croton dam and traversed the entire length of the lake in a boat, taking samples of the water from different places. Judging from the odor and taste I could discover nothing which was not common to all brook water after heavy rains, such as there have recently been in that vicinity. What taste and odor there was resembled that found in the water in the city. [illegible] days of clear weather will entirely do away with all unpleasant taste. Even if it should continue in its present condition, I apprehend there is nothing in it that could be considered unwholesome. In the course of a few days I will be able to report to the Crotan Board the result of a chemical and microscopical examination of the water taken from the reservoirs and other places.

The Last Great Trot.

[From the N. Y. Times, 17th.]

On the first mile of the first heat, Flora Temple made a false start. Starting again, Princess won the inside and kept it, keeping also a little ahead, until the turn of the fourth quarter, when Flora overtook and passed her, coming in one length ahead. Dashing on for the second mile, Flora gained the inside, and Princess broke. Flora went round the course so far ahead that Princess had no chance of overtaking her, and came in so triumphantly in advance that it was the opinion of the majority that Princess was distanced. So much so, indeed, that the judges had to leave their stand and go to take measurement. They decided that Princess had just saved herself, and was not distanced. The time in this heat was—First quarter on first mile, 35 seconds; second and third quarters 111 seconds; entire mile, 2:23. Second mile, first quarter, 36 seconds; second and third quarters, 113½ seconds; entire mile, 2:27½; making the heat of two miles in 4:50½, actually the shortest time on record.

Then Flora Temple was embraced; was followed to her stable by an applauding, multitude. Bets were freely offered—100 to 50, 100 to 40—but no takers.

The second heat commenced, amid extra excitement. Princess broke at the start, and Flora held up. They started again, Princess leading by a length; on the second quarter, Flora went nearly up to her; on the third quarter went ahead of her on the fourth, just passed her, and came in one length ahead. Then for the second mile. Flora went off at a trot, dashed immensely ahead and kept it up. Around the track she kept it up, and came in so far ahead that the driver of Princess slacked his rein when he had cleared the distancing post, and coolly walked in Flora Temple won the money (nominally $1,000, best two out of three), and the race, making time, in this second heat, as follows: first quarter, 36½ seconds; second and third quarters, 111½ seconds; entire mile, 2:24. Second mile—first quarter, 37½; second and third quarters, 114½; entire mile, 2:41—making the second heat of two miles in 5 minutes and 5 seconds.

News from Pike's Peak—Eighteen Pounds of Pure Gold—Report of the Gold Region by a Geologist.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.

The following is gathered from the Bulletin of this evening: Samuel Leonard, President of the Rocky Mountain City and Colonization Company, arrived here last evening from Pike's Peak. He brings eighteen pounds of pure gold, and valuable specimens in nuggets and quartz gold. He left the heart of the diggings on the 25th of July, having been there about two months. Mr. Leonard is one of the first Geologists of Missouri, and his mission to the mines was to make a thorough examination of the geography and geology of the Rocky Mountain country, and ascertain the extent of the gold bearing region. He found gold in all the streams that have their source near the Cone, of snow capped Mountains, but in streams that headed near the base of mountains the quartz found was very limited, and it was upon the latter that the prospecting of the returning crowd of miners was mostly done. He estimates the number of people dependent upon the mines at 40,000—divided as follows: 5,000 doing nothing and making less—30,000 making a comfortable living, and 5,000 accumulating large fortunes. The health in the mines is not good in consequence of bad water. Mr. Leonard visits the States to obtain machines for extracting gold from the rock. The western slope is said to be as auriferous as the eastern.

From Washington.

[Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, August 16, 1859.

A gentleman, thoroughly informed in respect to the canvass for Congress in the Petersburg District of Virginia, writes here that Mr. Prior has every assurance of success, though the canvass is complicated by many unusual circumstances.

The President's declaration for Jo. Lane for the succession, has set off nearly all the small politicians that do his bidding in the same direction. Old copies of the life of the General are eagerly gathered up, and sent off to the country to create a public sentiment.

Mr. Bishop, Commissioner of Patents, is at home, and Secretary Floyd is still at the Springs.

That Story about Eight Children at a Birth.

The New York Tribune some time ago published a foolish story (which has been generally copied by the papers) of a lady in Ohio having eight children at a birth. The Tribune now contradicts it as follows:

The Postmaster at Warren, Ohio, writes at the request of Mr. Timothy Bradley, of Johnston, Ohio, to say that the story of [illegible] Mrs. B. was the happy mother of eight children at a birth is a

The Ocean Vessels.

In a letter received in Detroit a day or two ago, it was stated that the brig Caroline left Liverpool about the 1st of this month on her homeward voyage, loaded with salt and pig iron. The Eveline Bates arrived at Liverpool on the 2d inst. The schooner Gold Hunter, Pomeroy, sailed from Ardrossan, July 20, for Chicago.

Railroad Intelligence.

Mr. Marsh has to-day entered upon his duties as Receiver of the Erie Railroad. The road is said to be in first rate order, and capable of doing a very large business without further expenditure for repairs of road or equipage. A meeting of the four trunk lines to the West will be held at Niagara on Thursday. The Baltimore and Ohio Road will be represented by Mr. Garratt, the Pennsylvania Central by Mr. Thompson, and the New York Central by Mr. Thompson, and the New York Central by Mr. Corning. It is not yet known who will attend on behalf of the Erie.—N. Y. Tribune, 17th.

The Wise Letter—The Administration and Organs.

The Philadelphia Press thinks the Administration is at the bottom of the publication of the Wise letter, and that the Herald had a private enmity to gratify, because Wise sent away its reporter, who came to take down his speeches in 1855. "Occasional" writes that Bennett will shortly attack Buchanan, because the correspondents of the Herald are not allowed the same privileges of obtaining news as heretofore.

The Cincinnati Tragedy.

De Marbais and his wife lay at the Hospital all day yesterday, without much change in their condition. They were kept asleep with morphine. Towards evening they grew worse, and at eleven o'clock there was but little hope of their recovery.—Gazette of yesterday.

THE CITY.

PERSONAL.—Michael Phelan, the billard champion of America, is expected to be in town on Saturday.

RARE OLD BOOKS.—The place to find books—old, rare, rich and valuable—is at Sherlock's, on Dearborn street, near the Post Office.

NEW YORK PAPERS.—Messrs. Bamford & Baldwin, Newsmen, No. 13 Lake street, send us latest New York dailies in advance of other sources.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was cool, even chilly as compared with recent solars. Some rain fell, though the clouds gave way to brilliant moonlight last evening.

RAPID MOVEMENT IN LUMBER.—A steed attached to a wagon load of boards, made good time in a runaway on Randolph street yesterday. He was brought up without disaster.

MAGAZINES FOR SEPTEMBER.—Godey, Arthur, Peterson, and Ballou's Dollar Monthly for September, have been received by McNally & Co., 81 Dearborn street.

A BENEFIT NIGHT AT MCVICKER'S.—Barry's Benefit, a bumper we trust, may prove this evening a truthful alliteration. "Richard III." is brought on with a powerful cast for to-night. See the bill.

GOOD TIME.—The passenger engine Chas. Butler on Wednesday made the run of ninety-one miles between Chicago and Janesville, with a train attached, in one hour and forty-six minutes actual running time.

THE DOLLAR EXCURSION.—The Planet, with her great company of excursionists for down the lake, was weather-bound yesterday. She will leave—wind and wave permitting—at 8 A. M. to-day.

EXCURSION POSTPONED.—The excursion of the Sabbath Schools of the Edwards Congregational and Dutch Reformed Churches of the West Division, through stress of weather yesterday, was postponed to Tuesday next.

PERSONAL.—We observe the following names among the latest arrivals at the Richmond House: Hon. Thompson Campbell and family, Natchez; Capt. H. Dyer, U. S. A.; Capt. W. F. Smith, and Hon. J. B. Washburne, Wis.; Hon. J. L. Baker, Chicago.

GROUT GIVEN UP BY HIS SURETIES.—Nick Grout, held to bail in $10,000, charged with the Cottage Grove murder on the 6th of July, has been surrendered up by his sureties, O'Neil and Guilford, who began to get uneasy in their bonds.

THOSE GAS HEATING STOVES, ETC.—The number of Messrs. Walworth, Hubbard & Co., was incorrectly given yesterday. The new and admirable application of gas to heating purposes may be seen at No. 233 Lake street, the establishment of Messrs. W. H. & Co., as above.

THE UNITED STATES FAIR.—We notice rapid progress making in the preparations at the Fair Grounds at Cottage Grove. Are those who should be contributors from this section alive to the necessities and opportunities of this great occasion approaching, to show off adequately the products, the manufactures, the ingenuity of the Northwest? Are our Chicago mechanics getting in readiness that which will do them severally ample justice at the Great National Fair.?

YOUNG BURGLARY NIPPED.—On Wednesday night, a little after midnight, officer Oliver, of Moore's Merchant's Police, caught a young man in the act of breaking into the rear window of Vinton's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, on Clark street. He was taken into custody and brought before Justice Akin yesterday when it was made to appear that he had formerly worked at Vinton's and like all the rest of the town knew where to go to get something good to eat. He was infelicitous, however, in his choice of hours, and mode of entrance. On Mr. Vinton's request he was discharged with a reprimand.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday evening a man by the name of William Wilkins was severely injured on the Rock Island Road. He left his home in Bucks county, Pennsylvania, one year ago last Christmas and came to Iowa. Early last spring he went to Pike's Peak where he remained one month. Last Saturday he reached this city on his return without money or friends. On Wednesday night he crept under some empty cars standing on the Rock Island Depot, for the double purpose of obtaining shelter and getting out of the way of the Police. While asleep in this situation the cars were backed over his right leg crushing it severely. He was picked up by some of the Police soon after the accident and conveyed to the City Hospital where every attention was paid him.

STATE FAIR.—The fixtures on the State Fair Grounds at Freeport are approaching completion, and on a scale beyond any previous fair held by this Society. Some thirty-five buildings for the various departments and purposes, some of which are the largest and best arranged ever before erected for the Society's use. A great improvement in the Fine Art Hall, one hundred by thirty feet with suitable sky lights, giving every part an equal light. The entire arrangement througut is made with a view to accommodate and make it interesting to artists to exhibit. Each of the other departments are furnished with buildings and fixtures well adapted to their several wants.

Though the liberality of the Railroad Companies of this State, Wisconsin and Iowa, exhibitors transport their stock and articles to and from the Fair free of cost. Visitors at half fare.

Through the special liberality of the Galena and Chicago Union, and the Illinois Central R. R. Companies, arrangements have been made with them to run evening trains at half fare during the week of the Fair, from Freeport to Rockford, Belvidere, Dixon, Galena, and all intermediate points, returning mornings in time for the exhibitions of the day, enabling all who may wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting and lodging at any of the above points. Ample arrangements are being made in the city of Freeport to accommodate many thousands. Extensive preparations are made for feeding on the Fair grounds, and by the same parties for lodging near the Fair grounds. Parties are invited by the society to camp and feed themselves near the Fair grounds.

THE WEST DIVISION POISONING CASE.

Verdict of Suicide—The Adulterer Arrested.

The inquest held by Coroner James on the body of the woman calling herself Mrs. Pueffer, who died at the corner of Jefferson and Hubbard street on Wednesday last, resulted yesterday in a verdict of Death by poison, administered by her own hands. The man, Frederick Pueffer, a German and journeyman painter, was as stated in our last issue claimed by the wretched woman as her husband. Letters found in his possession at his arrest on the first suspicion that he might have had connection with the poisoning, fully indicate the relations of the miserable pair, he a perjured husband who has deserted a wife in Racine, and she his guilty mistress forgetting the duties she owed herself and three children, and the more due them in that the husband and father Gilderoy or Gilroy is now in jail in Kenosha. The circumstances of the poor little ones attest that orphanage is not the worst evil that may befall helpless childhood.

The woman has resided in Racine, but followed her paramour to this city, to escape the obloquy that had attached to their infamous shamelessness in that community. The elder child, a bright little boy, had been told to call Pueffer his father; and Pueffer had visited the mother several times since their arrival here, and always passed the night. The Racine Journal of the 13th, refers in a lengthy paragraph to the elopement of the miserable pair.

The letters of the woman reveal the darkest side of human nature, and how distorted and debased the noblest sentiments of woman's nature may become by vicious habits. She has gone to a dishonored grave, leaving her children a heritage of shame they can only escape by forgetting her who bore them.

We are glad to learn that the wretched paramour of the ill-fated suicide will not escape entirely free from the consequences of guilty associations thus fearfully terminated. He exchanges his arrest under suspicion of murder, for the more tangible and direct charge of adultery, and has been held to bail for examination on that charge on Monday next.

One half the world knows not how the other half lives, and it is well; but there are times when the veil is rent aside, and hideous vice, comes shrieking into the light, not as a new thing, nor that it has not ever attached to the lowest phases of our poor humanity, but only because some startling accession of horror has thrust it open upon the world. Such disclosures have their meaning and their warning, for they reiterate and enforce the truth, that the way of the transgressor is hard. The first steps that lead to the brink of the precipice are strewed with flowers. It is salutary at times, though ghastly the spectacle, to gaze at the bleached skeletons that whiten the rocks at the base, and learn the end of evil doing.

GREAT EXCITEMENT!—GOLD FOUND IN CHICAGO!—ARRIVAL OF SEVERAL HUNDRED PEOPLE BY RAILROAD—A PRINTER TAKES OUT A $60 NUGGET!—Where is Pike's Peak? Did any gentleman refer to California in our hearing? Will any person be good enough to allude again, just once, to gold diggings in Vermont? Time was when the places referred to were considerable of that variety of vegetable called pumpkins; we have ourselves seen parties of sound mind and excited fancy bound thither, under all circumstances and styles of conveyance. And, too, we have heard from these auriferous localities in letters of various import, from hues the most golden to tints of the deepest indigo blue. Shall we whisper it—those places referred to are nowhere now. Is it possible that we have become an Eldorado, that claims are to be staked out, sluices built, cradles rocked, and the various operations of the gold regions performed in Chicago? We shall see what we shall see.

At present it promises well. We can say no more. We do advise, however, landlords not to put up rents or pull down valuable houses covering supposed claims. Let no one buy a corner lot or an interest thereof on the basis of this article; don't let us get excited. Several hundred people came into the city over the various lines of railroad yesterday, Their arrival has possibly nothing to do with the discovery of gold here. We doubt whether they had heard of it in fact, but some of them who still remain may be disposed to consider it providential that they are here on the spot for early operations.

Gold has been found in Chicago, virgin gold, and we doubt whether California or the Peak surnamed Pike started out an auriferous reputation more plumply. Who will dare to say that their first nuggets taken out weighed some ounces and a half more or less, and was valued at nearly sixty dollars.

None of your scale gold that, none of your black sand needing to be treated with quicksilver but a "regular chunk," and taken from one claim with one grab, by one of our printers. We deprecate anything like a panic thereat. We advise our citizens to continue at their usual avocations, and not proceed to tear up the town. Let the grain brokers meet quietly in full attendance on the street corners, let no one go wild with a home-made gold fever. We have not indicated where the gold was found, but Mr. Anderson was between Lake View and Cottage Grove, a little west of the lake, and Mr. Anderson is a printer and duly took his bearings.

We know the claim from which it was taken to be valuable, and that it will pay to work it, but whether it will realize more as improved real estate, or to speculate upon, or for diggings is a question. It lies in the bailiwick of the Street Commissioner of the —— Division, and so hasn't been dug lately, at all events. The first chunk thus discovered we have a right to crow over. Huge excitements have been kicked up over less than —ounces and a half.

LATER—The owner of the first gold nugget found in Chicago (which in this instance we take it, augurs a gold nugget lost in Chicago) may have his property on calling at this office and proving his claim. The honesty of the finder must be vindicated, even if it be shown that in place of Gold Diggings in Chicago, we have only some one who is careless in the possession of nuggets dug elsewhere. The real loser will find this part of these gold tidings perfectly serious.

QUARREL AMONG EX-PARTNERS.—We have made one or two references to the series of cases growing out of the relations of Messrs. Doggett and Haaf, late law partners, which from civil proceedings have become quite uncivil, in short criminal. Such quarrels were best kept for private use, and disposition outside the Police Courts and police items. We were furnished with a statement of the disposition of one of these suits, which we believed came from Mr. Haaf. He denies that it came from him, and avers that it does him injustice. We have no personal acquaintance with either of the perties but it is justice to say of Mr. Haaf that the suits against him for larceny have been dismissed without a show or implication of his guilt in the premises. Quarrels between ex-partners, and ex-spouses are of the most vitriolic character generally, and this seems no exception, only keep it to yourselves gentlemen.

THE SWISS BELL RINGERS AT METROPOLITAN HALL.—We understand that the world-famed Peak Family, the Lancashire bell ringers and vocalists, who gave two of their admirable entertainments in this city a few months since with great success, have consented to resume the treat to our citizens on Monday evening next, which will be the occasion for the re-opening of Metropolitan Hall, which has been for some time closed, undergoing the process of repainting, &c. Those who heard the Bell Ringers before will not fail to be present, and those who did not will embrace the promised opportunity of doing so again.

METEOROLOGICAL.—Meteorological observations taken by J. H. Reed & Co., 144 and 146 Lake street, Aug. 18th:

SANDY HOOK, Aug. 18.—The steamship Asia, from Liverpool on the 6th inst., passed here, bound for New York. Her advices are two days later.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

In Parliament a bill creating a naval reserve of 30,000 men, was progressing. It had passed all the Navy and Army estimates, and was expected to adjourn on the 13th.

Volunteers for the 30,000 naval reserve are to enter for five years, and will be to the navy what the militia is to the army.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.—Count Collerdo, the Austrian, M. De Sambrus, the Sardinian, and De Bourgeney, the French, representatives to the Peace Conference, had either reached Zurich, or were en route for the meeting.

The Peace Conference at Zurich was to meet on the 8th inst.

STRIKES IN LONDON.—The strike among the builders of London was becoming more serious every day. It was expected that 40,000 of the men would be without employment, the day the steamer sailed.

A great number of meetings had been held in Hype Park, and a determination arrived at to abide by the nine hour movement. The employers had likewise held a meeting, and resolved to resist the demands.

The Calcutta Mail of the 5th of July had been received. The European troops were accepting their discharges in great numbers. The mutineers at Bun Shampore had returned to duty, except forty of the leaders, who will be court martialed.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The steamer Great Eastern will be delivered up by the contractor in complete condition on the 18 of August.

A ministerial crisis is said to be impending, owing to the conflicting opinions on the question of reform.

FRANCE.—The Bank of France has reduced its rate of discount from 4 to 3½ per cent. The disarmament of the French navy was progressing. The 150,000,000 francs unexpended of the late loan is to be devoted to internal improvements. The Paris Bourse had been generally firm and animated. On the 5th there was considerable buoyancy, and market closed at an advance of ⅛.

A denial is given to the statement of Le Norde of a pretended interview between the Emperor of Austria and the King of Sardinia at Villa Franca.

The Vienna Gazette contains the ordinances revoking the restrictions which were imposed on commerce on account of the war.

ITALY.—It is reported that an attempt had been made to poison Garibaldi.

The Earl of Granville announces that the Government intends to adhere to the principles on which the system of national education in Ireland had hitherto been conducted.

The disturbances at Crema have not been of any political character.

In the duchy of Modena a great concourse of electors have inscribed their votes, "Austria and Rome."

The Daily News publishes for the first time a translation of the Convention concluded between the Papal Government and the Austrian General commanding the army of occupation at Bologna in 1850. The armed maintenance of the Pope's authority was not only committed to the Austrian General, but the highest judicial powers were attributed to him. To the tender mercies of the Haynaus were left the trial and sentence of men charged with political offences of every degree, from high treason down to party demonstration, and members of secret societies.

MODENA.—Tarini the Dictator of Modena in a second proclamation says: "Let the conquered followers of the foreigners menace us and I shall resolutely employ all the means at my disposal to defend the national independence.

The Presidency of the proposed Confederacy is a fruitful topic of discussion in Continental journals. The Siecle declares itself opposed to the assumption of that office by the Pope. Nothing it thinks can be gained by according any advantage of elevation or dignity to the Papal Power.

FRANCE.—Paris, Friday morning.—The Moniteur of this morning contains the following:—A deputation of Venetians presented an address to the French Minister at Turin intended for the Emperor, and in which was contained a proclamation on the part of a province of Venetia against the direct and indirect domination of Austria in that part of Italy. The Minister, we are informed, accepted the document, but said [illegible]

The Patrie says according to a letter from Florence it is supposed that Garibaldi would take command of the Tuscan army.

The same journal further states that the Emperor Napoleon will visit the camp at Chalons and will stay there till Tuesday next.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says it is expected that the Moniteur will in a day or two publish a note in reference to the Zurich Conference, which will confirm the lately announced pacific disposition of the French Government.

AUSTRIA—The Vienna Gazette contains ministerial ordinances revoking the restrictions which were imposed on commerce and navigation on account of war with France. They however maintain for the present the interdiction to export horses and mules.

SARDINIA—M. De Simbrois of Piedmont has arrived at Zurich.

The official journal of Lombardy denies reports published in certain papers as to the object of the mission of Count Reiset, and states that the French diplomatic agent had not such instructions from his government as are favorable to the wishes of Italy.

The Austrian Gazette states that Cardinal Antonelli has presented a scheme of an Italian Confederation consisting of a sort of Mutual Assurance Association of Italian Governments, destined to replace the Austrian Protectorate. The object of the Confederation is delared to be to control revolution whenever it may show itself, and to fortify the governments in such a way that they may annihilate all revolutionary proceedings. It is proposed that each State taking part in the Confederation shall have a representative of some deputed to the Holy Father, honorary President Confederation, and all the envoys united shall form the federal diet, which shall be charged to watch over the security of the territory of the Confederation, by fixing the military contingent and the force of the garrison of the federal fortresses, and which shall also discuss the territorial changes and treaties which may be concluded between the members of Confederation. In so far as these treaties shall concern the general interest. The Pope has condemned to death seven of the inhabitants of the town of Perugia for participation in the disorders which took place in that city on the 14th of June. The accused however have been judged by default, and it is most unlikely they will be found when wanting.

There is, it appears, to be a temporary occupation of Italy by the French, according to present declaration, but the fortunes of war may transform it to a permanency.

The Belgian Independent says besides the troops at the division trochee, charged with the occupation of Parma and Modena, the division De Outremarre is to proceed to Rome and division Uhrick to Milan. France is thus to keep 55,000 men in the Peninsula.

Austria on its side appears disposed to maintain its army on a respectable footing in Venetia.

The Journal de Frankfort affirms that in consequence of the complications which prevail in Italy the Emperor has resolved only to withdraw from Venetia the 4th battalion of 22 regiments of infantry, so that the forces assembled in that country will be diminished by only 25,000 men.

The Liverpool Times says a very remarkable circumstance is now exciting some attention in Germany, and it will shortly excite a still greater amount of interest in the United States. Every one knows the immense number of German emigrants who find their way to the Union, most of them, it is needless to state, in a condition far removed from affluence. But however poor they may be when they leave home, they generally return to their native country in after years in very comfortable circumstances. As their lot is cast among Republicans, and as they wish to have a voice in the making of the laws which govern them, these German emigrants become in the majority of cases naturalized Americans. It seems that a native of Hanover who stands in this position has recently returned to the country of his birth, and was draughted into the militia and compelled to do military duty. He refused, pleaded the laws of his adopted country, and applied for protection to the American Consul. The American Government has taken up the subject warmly, and has peremptorily demanded his release. It has done more than this. It has caused requisitions of a like nature to be made upon the other German governments who are made to understand that American citizens cannot be called upon to submit to the dictates of arbitrary rule. The German Powers, however distasteful it may be to them, will give way, and they will respect the rights of those Germanic Americans who return from the far West with a handsome amount of dollars with which to pass the evening of their days in their native country.

It is a remarkable fact that there is no great power in the world with so small an army and navy as the United States, and yet which makes itself more feared and respected abroad.

There is no prospect of a settlement of the difference between the builders and their men. About 220 of the largest builders have joined the Defence Association, and probably the 40,000 men they employ will be discharged on Saturday, unless they agree to the conditions now laid down. Both parties are confident of victory.

The masters anticipate abundant labor from the provinces, which the men say they cannot get. The operators on the other hand expect general support from all the trades throughout the kingdom, and boast that they can remain on strike for six weeks upon their own resources, without calling for assistance from their own or from other societies. The Gas Company's

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, August 18.—About 500 illegal squatters are on the lands belonging to the Kaw Indians in Kansas. The subject of preventing intrusions of this character, which extensively prevails, occupies the attention of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who contemplates the initiation of such measures as will at least lessen, if not altogether remove these abuses, so dangerous to peaceful relations with the Indians, and from which the United States are bound to protect them, under existing treaties.

Senor Leredo accompanied by Senor Mata has had a full and free conversation with the President on the subject of Mexican Affairs. It is represented that the interview was mutually gratifying and instructive. Leredo will remain in this country for several weeks.

Erie Railroad Affairs.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The fifth mortgage bondholders of the New York and Erie Railroad Company have applied to their trustees to have the protection of the Receiver extended to them as well as to the fourth mortgage bondholders. Judge Ingraham, in the Supreme Court this afternoon, on the application of the trustees, extended the Receivership already existing, to all the property covered by the fifth and last mortgage of the Company. It is understood that this last mortgage covers all the property of the Company. This proceeding will prevent any division of property necessary to operate the Road.

Convention at Topeka.

LEAVENWORTH, Aug. 18.—The Democratic Territorial Convention at Topeka yesterday, nominated S. W. Johnson for Congress.

The Overland Express has arrived. News unimportant. Receipts of dust for the week $20,000.

The sales of Government mules at Utah are completed, and brought very high figures.

Counterfeiter Convicted.

LANCASTER, PA., Aug. 18.—Lewis Suter who has been twice tried and acquitted by the District Court of Philadelphia for passing counterfeit coin, was convicted this evening by our Court of Quarter Sessions, for passing counterfeit bank notes. He has not yet been sentenced.

A Rope Walk.

NIAGARA FALLS, Aug. 18.—Mons. Blondin crossed the river on his rope yesterday, with a man on his back. During the performance a row occurred, and a man sixty years of age was thrown over the river bank and killed. The gentleman's name is not known.

From Salt Lake.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—A dispatch to the Republican says, that the Salt Lake Mail reached Atchison yesterday. Capt. Cooper, formerly Secretary of the Territory, was nominated for Congress, vice Bernheisel.

The check lever, a simple device for controlling the thread and drawing it firm in the goods, is a very desirable advantage over other machines that are using the leather pad, which is constantly causing the thread to break and become entangled around the shuttle, as experience has taught all that have used them. This new invention Fells and Turns all widths of hem without basting. au11-2w.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY FOR ONE OR MORE MEN, OF SNAP AND ENTERPRISE, TO GO INTO BUSINESS.

I have been in trade several years in a thriving town on a Railroad in Northern Illinois. The town is favorably located in a grain and stock growing district; has continued to grow and prosper notwithstanding the hard times, and is well supplied with schools, churches, &c.

Wishing to retire from business, I propose to sell out my stock and to lease my business stand. I will sell and lease on terms very favorable to one wishing to engage in business. My stock consists of the staple articles of Lumber, Builder's Hardware, Stoves, Groceries, Farming Implements, &c., &c., and is worth some $2,500. The grain business is also connected with my trade. I wish to realize on the above stock within the next six months, $1,000. For the remainder, more or less, I will take good and available real estate in the city of Chicago, or well secured paper on liberal time. Proposals will be received to the 1st of September. SUBSTITUTE FOR THE PURCHASE OF CUBA.

We are pleased to learn that our views upon reciprocal trade with Cuba, meet with the approval of the reading and thinking public generally. There can be no doubt that this is the only practicable and peaceful solution of the Cuban question that has yet been suggested; and it is not to be wondered at that practical, peace-loving men readily accept it as such. Annexation, even were there no insurmountable obstacles in the way of it, would be far from desirable. This Confederacy must be Anglo-Saxon or a failure. It must maintain its homogeneity of population, its old love for trial by jury and for habeas corpus, its liberal ideas, and its Protestant spirit, if it would avoid the fate of the Spanish American Republics. We could not get Cuba if we wanted her, nor should we want her if her accession were possible. Grant that we must have her sugar and molasses, her coffee and her tropical fruits; would it not be infinitely cheaper to buy these commodities with the products of our soil and with our manufactures, paying neither import nor export duties, than first to pay two hundred millions of dollars for the Island, and then buy the commodities on no better terms. Considered in the light of a commercial question merely, the argument is no less overwhelming in favor of reciprocity and against purchase, than that by which the former policy is sustained on political grounds.

The advocates of annexation profess to believe that the possession of Cuba is necessary to the security of the Gulf States, in case of war with a maritime nation. This argument is the main reliance in making out their case. But it is shown to be valueless by the fact that with a much smaller expenditure of money than would purchase Cuba, we can secure all the advantages, in a military point of view, which its possession would confer, besides many others of a commercial character that the ownership of Cuba could not possibly give. These advantages are to be obtained by the construction of a ship canal across the peninsula of Florida. Recent surveys have been made of the route of such a canal, by a competent engineer, under order of the government, and the report not only shows it to be eminently practicable, but that its cost will not exceed ten millions of dollars. This is but the twentieth part of the estimated cost of Cuba, supposing that Spain would consent to sell it at any price. As an alternative for annexation, it commends itself strongly on the ground of economy; while it places the key to the Gulf in our possession; shortens the route from New York to New Orleans, the mouth of the Rio Grande and Tehuantepec, by at least five hundred miles; besides wholly avoiding the dangerous navigation of the Florida Keys, so fatal to our commerce. If it is necessary to expend money to give us control of the key to the Gulf, let it be used for the construction of this canal, which can be made at so small a cost, rather than spend it in unlimited quantities for the purchase or conquest of Cuba.

No question of commercial policy has been presented to the American people for a long while, that can combine so many interests in its support, as this one of reciprocal trade with Cuba. All the States on the Atlantic seaboard have a direct interest in it, for the reason that it would augment their commerce and greatly increase their carrying trade. Not a port or city, from Portland to the mouth of the Rio Grande, but would feel the impulse of an increased commerce. The great grain and meat-producing regions of the West have a still larger interest in the measure; for it would open a new market for their products that would establish at once a permanent advance in each of their great staples. The States bordering the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers are equally interested, for these streams would become the great highway for a large portion of the trade that would spring up between the States and Cuba. The whole country has a general interest, in addition to those which are special and local, by [illegible] the fact that reciprocity [illegible] twenty millions of specie that now goes annually to pay our balances with that Island. We know not how a policy could be more strongly fortified by solid, unanswerable argument. Let us have reciprocity of trade with Cuba, put a stop to fillibustering, and place a quietus upon the miserable vagabonds who are constantly trying to bring the country into trouble.

A GRAVE QUESTION.

The alarming natural increase of the slave population of the South, taken in connection with the mad project for re-opening the African Slave Trade, suggests the grave inquiry, What shall be done to keep down this dangerous element which is growing in our midst to such ungovernable proportions? It is an undoubted fact that the laws of numerical increase which are swelling the black race in the United States, will not be suspended to accommodate our peril. On the contrary, those persons who have a qualified supervision over the matter, are exercising their ingenuity, like patriarchal herdsmen, to double and quadruple their stock of insurrection power, by every means at their command, decent and indecent. The ancient Spartans, perceiving the necessity of thinning out a servile race multiplying with fatal rapidity on their hands, adopted the expedient of a periodical massacre—cooping up a given number of Helots in a defenseless vale, and turning upon them a squadron of young butchers, very much in the fashion of modern rat killing. But even this system did not prevent several bloody insurrections, in which many of the first families of Sparta were exterminated. The Spartan plan cannot be adopted in this country for several reasons. Slaves are worth too much money per head to be thus sacrificed. The moral sentiment of the land would rebel against it, and perhaps lead to the forcible liberation of the entire black race. The most desperate conflict that ever reddened the Italian peninsula, was the servile war inaugurated by Spartacus in the year 71, (B. C.) One of the most bloody and successful revolutions on record was the rising of slaves in Hayti in 1791. Less than three years ago a popular tumult among a few hundreds of slaves along the Cumberland River, shook the States of Kentucky and Tennessee like an earthquake.

No future event can be calculated on with more absolute certainty than a mighty social convulsion in the southern half of the Union, unless some step is taken to check the increase of the servile race. The nature of things is not to be thwarted. History is not to be cheated out of her dues. It is only a question of time, and the longer the solution of the problem is postponed by compromises the more fearful will be the ultimate catastrophe. Nor is the question limited to checking the increase of slaves merely. "Emancipation and deportation" (in the language of Mr. Jefferson) are the sole and sovereign cure of the evil which threatens us. We quote from the author of the Declaration of Independence:

> "The day is not far distant when the public mind must bear it and adopt it, or worse will follow. Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate, than that these people (the negroes) are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same Government. Nature, habits, opinion, have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them. It is still in our power to direct the process of emancipation and deportation, [illegible] in such a slow degree as that the evil will [illegible] off insensibly, and their place be pari passu [illegible] up with free white laborers. If, on the [illegible] it is left to force itself on, human na[illegible] must shudder at the prospect held up. We [illegible]ld in vain look for an example in the Spanish deportation or deletion of the Moors."

Again he says in a letter to Mr. Sparks:

> "The second object, and the most interesting to us, as coming home to our physical and moral characters, to our happiness and safety, is to provide an asylum to which we can, by degrees, send the whole of that population from among us, and establish them under our patronage and protection, as a separate, free and independent people, in some country and climate friendly to human life and happiness."

And again in his letter to Mr. Coles he says:

> "Yet the hour of emancipation is advancing in the march of time. It will come; and, whether brought on by the generous energies of our own minds, or by the bloody process of St. Domingo, excited and conducted by the power of our present enemy, if once stationed permanently within our country, and offering asylum and arms to the oppressed, is a leaf of our history not yet turned over."

Our readers have had their attention frequently called to the scheme promulgated by Mr. Frank Blair, Jr., in the House of Representatives, and introduced by Mr. Doolittle of Wisconsin in the Senate, for the acquisition, by treaty, in Yucatan, Central or South America, of the rights and privileges of settlement and of citizenship for the benefit of such persons of African descent as may voluntarily desire to emigrate from the United States. We republish Mr. Doolittle's resolution:

> "Whereas, The numerous disabilities to which free persons of color of African descent are subjected in many of the free States have made it desirable on the part of large numbers of them, to seek elsewhere a more favorable field for their labor and enterprise; and whereas the same class of persons is regarded with still greater disfavor in the slaveholding States from considerations deemed so controlling that further emancipation in many of them has been prohibited by law unless the persons emancipated shall be at the same time removed beyond the jurisdiction of the State, and in some of them the graver question is seriously entertained whether persons of African descent who are now free shall not be again reduced to slavery if they continue to remain within their jurisdictions; and whereas in Yucatan and Central and South America there are vast regions almost uninhabited of the most beautiful and productive countries in the world, in a climate well adapted to the constitution of the African race to develop its greatest power and highest activity: Therefore—
> "Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Relations inquire into the expediency of acquiring by treaty in Yucatan, Central or South America, the rights and privileges of settlement and of citizenship for the benefit of such persons of color, of African descent, as may voluntarily desire to emigrate from the United States, and form themselves into a colony or colonies, under the laws of the State or States to which they emigrate; the United States, in consideration of the commercial advantages of free trade with such colony or colonies, making and securing the necessary and proper engagements to maintain them in the enjoyment of the rights and privileges acquired by such treaty or treaties."

Though this suggestion has not yet received the attention it merits, it is becoming of more and more consequence every day, and in just the proportion that the Democracy clamor for the re-opening of the Slave Trade, the acquisition of Cuba and the annexation of territory for further slave occupation, will it rise in importance. Two undeniable facts establish the wisdom and feasibility of the scheme: the prime necessity of getting rid of the major portion if not the whole of our slave population; and the adaptedness of Central and South America in soil and climate, to the colored races and these races only. If we are not mistaken this will be one of the prominent issues in the next Presidential campaign.

INDIAN CORN IN ENGLAND.

Until recently a violent prejudice has existed among the English people against the use of Indian Corn as an article of food; and indeed we may say that not a little of it still remains. Much of this feeling is undoubtedly owing to ignorance of the various methods in vogue in the United States for preparing it for the table; and some of it undoubtedly has grown out of the fact that our English cousins made their earliest experiments with meal ground in the States and, consequently, stale and musty by the time it reached them. The eccentric William Cobbett, while residing in this country, contracted a strong liking for corn-bread as used by the Yankees. When he returned to England he entered zealously upon the task of introducing it to the favorable notice of John Bull. He undertook its culture in defiance of climatic impossibilities; he set the example of living upon it; he wrote about it; he furnished all the details respecting its culture, manufacture into meal, and the modes of preparing it for the table; he made paper of the husks, and printed a book on Indian Corn upon this paper.—But Cobbett lived at too early a day to succeed in his undertaking. The Britishers read his books, but turned up their noses at his various preparations of Indian meal. What Cobbett could not do, however, the famine of 1847 proved itself abundantly able to accomplish. Prior to that year, our exports of Indian Corn to Great Britain were small. In 1847 we shipped to British ports 28,917,096 bushels. When hunger pressed him, John Bull threw up his disgust to make room in his capacious stomach for our corn bread. The experience of that year has done him good. Since then he has taken to johnny cake kindly, if not with a decided relish. His average annual consumption of Indian Corn—without the intervention of famine—is now about 12,000,000 bushels. Cobbett ought to have lived a little longer. Nevertheless, as an article of food, Indian Corn is still handled a little gingerly in Great Britain. The art of preparing it, in palatable forms, is not fully understood. Take the following from the Mark Lane Express of August 1st, 1859, [illegible]:

> "Maize flour, even of the finest quality, cannot be baked alone into bread. It ferments, like other flour, but the dough falls in the oven, and gives a compact, soap-like loaf, which could not be eaten daily. A certain quantity of some other substance must be mixed with it to make a good bread; a third part of wheat, rye, or potato fecula, is sufficient for this purpose."

A regiment of American cooks—of Yankee spinsters from the North, of Sucker and Hoosier girls from the West, and of experienced colored kitchen servants from the South—ought to make a six months invasion of England.—Before the end of that time, the kitchen outposts would all be surrendered, potato fecula would be thrown into the swill tubs, and we should hear no more of "compact soap-like loaves." But even without such an invasion, John Bull will, by and by, learn the virtues of corn-bread, and the other palateable and wholesome preparations of Indian Corn; and we shall always be able to supply him with as much of the raw material as he may want.

A PLAN OF UNION.

The Peoria Democratic Union, (Buchanan organ) expresses great anxiety for the return of the Douglas bolters to the bosom of the National Democratic party. Here is its basis of union:—

> In 1858 the democracy of Illinois divided on what is known as the Lecompton question, and two organizations were created, one sustaining and the other opposing the present Democratic administration. We believe that ninety-nine one-hundredths of the Democrats of this State are to-day resolved to abide by and support whatever candidates may be nominated at Charleston; but for the purpose of merging the two organizations in one, we have proposed, and now renew and urge the proposition, that the two State Committees meet, and formally refer all differences, whether relating to men or to measures, to the Charleston Convention, agreeing to acquiesce in its decision thereupon.
> Either this must be done in advance or the division must continue, and one organization or the other must be proscribed by the National Convention.

We think we see the Douglas bolters before the Charleston Convention, hat in hand, humbly awaiting its decision! We have no desire to interfere in any way in this family quarrel; but we take the liberty of suggesting that the body guard of 10,000 armed men, which a New York Douglas paper thinks will be necessary to save the Douglas delegates from being assassinated by the Palmetto fire-eaters, be increased to 100,000. With such an array of determined men, armed with Minnie rifles, revolvers and bowie-knives, with a park of rifled cannon in reserve, the Douglas faction would have some show of getting a decision of the question in their favor. Does the Times accept the proposed plan of Union?

COINCIDENCES.

Seventy-six members of the House of Representatives voted for raising the rates of letter postage. Seventy-six members, also voted against the Homestead bill.

The seventy-six who voted for the former were nearly identical with the seventy-six who voted against the latter. All of them were Democrats.

A Democratic Senate slaughtered the Homestead bill after it had passed the House by Republican votes. The same Democratic Senate also voted to increase the rates of postage.

The Chicago Times, organ of the Douglas wing of the slavery propagandists, objects to the Kansas Constitution because it provides for the inviolability of the homestead.

Pro-Slavery Democracy is the same everywhere and under each of its multifarious forms. The people of the West should never forget these facts.

WAIFS FROM MINNESOTA.

Balloon Ascension—Wright County War—Politics, Crops, &c., &c.

[From our Occasional Correspondent.]

ST. ANTHONY, MINN., August 15, 1859.

Nearly all the speculators in the Northwest have "gone up," metaphorically speaking, during the past two years, so that that particular style of high-flying has ceased to be a novelty, but we are about to be gratified with an exhibition of the other kind of going up—i.e., ballooning. Mr. W. Croffut, editor of the Evening News, of this city, will make an ascension to-morrow morning in Prof. S. Wilson's elegant balloon, "Star of the North," from Nicollet Island, the beautiful island of forty-seven acres lying in the Mississippi River between this city and Minneopolis. This will be, I believe, the second balloon ascension ever made in Minnesota.

The Wright County "Insurrection" and invasion—now generally known as the "Gallinipper War"—has come to an inglorious end. Your readers are familiar with the history of this hideous farce, and I need not recount the circumstances of it now.

Immediately on hearing of the "rescue" of the alleged lynchers, Moore and Bertram, by 98 disguised citizens of Rockford, Acting-Governor Sibley mustered all the citizen soldiery of Minnesota, some 300 men, dispatching 150 to the "seat of war" Wright County, which he had already declared "in a state of insurrection," and ordering the rest under arms ready to march. The 150 went to Montibello with Acting-Governor Sibley, and his $180 dollar uniform at their head; took possession of a hotel and stuck out the sign "Jefferson Barracks;" called upon the outlaws to come forth and surrender; found a thousand farmers peacefully harvesting their hay and grain, and finding it impossible to "kick against nothing," they turned on their heels and came back to St. Paul as empty handed as they started out. No "rebel" or anybody else was arrested. The expedition started on Friday, the 5th, and returned on Thursday, the 11th, at a cost to the State of not less than $8,000. (The Governor, of course, will not think of paying this out of his $10,000 Contingent Fund, which the Democratic Legislature invited him to fob, and which invitation he accepted.) The farmers of Wright—for it is exclusively an agricultural county—offered the invading militia $1.50 per day each to help them through harvesting, but the offer was indignantly scorned. So the farce has ended, and things are just as they were before his Acting-Excellency began his hallabaloo.

The fact of this matter is, Mr. Editor, the people of Wright County are not the bloodthirsty assassins they have been represented, and their libellers will know it. They are, on the other hand, as moral, intelligent, enterprising, industrious and religious as any community in the Northwest. Their action in hanging the murderer Jackson may have been ill-timed and unnecessary—for Lynch law, is a dreadful remedy at any time, and only to be resorted to in the most desperate extreme, for social defense. Whether the time had come for revolution is very doubtful—indeed, the popular impression is, that it had not. But there was no malice in their violence; it was done with all the consciousness and deliberation of reasoning and resolute men. And what a provocation they had. Within ten years, more than twenty murders have been committed in Minnesota, and only one man has been punished for that crime, and he was a poor degraded Indian, who committed murder after his white brethren had made him drunk. Criminals in all parts of the State have broken out or whittled out of our rotten jails; have bribed our public officers; or have been let out by our jailors, and the only question they have ever had to settle has been, how long they would voluntarily board at the expense of the State. In one case, a year ago, murderers were let out of our State prison because the counties which sent them had not paid their board in advance!

Mr. Sibley has now offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of any of the 47 lynchers of Jackson; I would respectfully suggest the propriety of offering a reward of $5 at least, for the murderers of Morearty, Trotter, Ashinghurst, Polhemus, Jenkins, Wilcox, Schœffer, Loderland, Neill, Cochran, Wallace, and half a dozen others, whose names I do not recollect, who have met violent deaths at the hands of the assassin in Minnesota within two years! This spirit of lynch law sprang legitimately from a public consciousness of danger—the notorious jail deliveries, the bribery and corruption of keepers, the [illegible] officers. This is the place to begin to mend.

In political affairs, there is a perfect dead calm—not a ripple of interest in any quarter. This is no doubt superinduced by the commercial apathy and financial depression occasioned by our wretched Railroad Currency. One of the bogus banks, the "Exchange Bank of Glencoe," has just suspended. It is hoped that the rest will speedily follow, and Minnesota be delivered once more from the curse of shinplasters. The people of this State thank you from their hearts for the noble stand you have maintained, and the telling words you have spoken against wildcats everywhere, and in favor of a pure currency.

The Moccasins hold their State Convention on Wednesday of this week, after which the canvass will become more animated. It matters little whom they nominate; there is not a Democrat in the State that can come within 400 votes of Alexander Ramsey on a fair run, and an honest count.

Our crops are the best ever known, every crop seeming to be perfect of its kind. Taking the acres in the aggregate, I believe that Minnesota will harvest a greater yield this autumn in proportion to the area planted than any other State in the Union—and certainly a larger crop by one-half than she ever produced before.

The State Agricultural Fair will be held in this County on the 5th, 6th, and 7th of October next.

The Winslow House, in this city, is now overflowing with Southern and Eastern guests, and the merits of our city, if not its reputation, are now thoroughly established as a watering place and resort for pleasure and health seekers, second to none in the Union.

Yours, FRONTIER.

Religious Statistics.

Editors Press and Tribune:

In your paper of the 17th inst., is an extract from the New York Evening Post containing statistics of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, as follows:

	Old Sch'l.	New Sch'l.
Synods	33	23
Presbyteries	168	108
Ministers	2,077	1,545
Churches	3,487	1,542
Licentiates	297	184
Candidates	493	370
Members added on examination	28,945	10,765
Total communicants	279,630	137,990

Before me is the "Congregational Year Book for the year 1859," containing statistics of the Congregational Churches in the United States, which, in connection with the above, may interest your readers. The "summary" is contained on page 115 of the "Year Book":

Ministers	2,315
Churches	2,524
Members added on examination	12,124
Total communicants	238,624

A very noticeable fact in these statistics is the relatively large number of persons added to the Old School body on examination—being nearly double that added to the Congregational Churches, though their whole membership is only 40,000 less,—and being 3,240 more than double the number added to the New School body, though the number of communicants in the latter is very little less than half that of the Old School.

Having been in the habit of examining these statistics for many years, it is believed the relative proportions are no larger this year than the average. PHILOECCLESIA.

The Aurora Institute.

Editors Press and Tribune:

A few weeks ago you called the attention of your readers to the "Aurora Institute and Clark Seminary," in an editorial. But as the time for opening draws near, it may not be uninteresting to your readers to see a brief exhibit of the advantages we offer young ladies and gentlemen for a thorough academic education. Aurora is one of the most pleasant and enterprising young cities that can be found East or West. Very few places can boast of superior moral or religious advantages; and for beauty of situation it is unsurpassed in all this beautiful valley of the Mississippi.

The Seminary building is really a magnificent structure, equal if not superior in finish, in dimensions and capacity to any other in the great Northwest. It has cost over $60,000, and its fitting up, external and internal, about $10,000 more. Students will find their rooms pleasant, and tastefully furnished.

The Faculty, now full and numbering eleven, has been selected with the greatest care. Neither time nor expense has been spared to have every department filled with the best of talent. How far we have succeeded in this we leave to the verdict of the hundreds of students whom [illegible] confidently believe we offer the youth of the land advantages unsurpassed in any institution of like grade, and on as low terms as similar advantages can be had anywhere in the country. Our opening will be on the first day of September. A TRUSTEE.

FROM THE UPPER MISSOURI.

Remarkable Trip of the Steamer Spread Eagle.

[From the Missouri Republican, Aug. 17th.]

It has been demonstrated by the enterprise of the American Fur Company that the river is navigable for steamboats at a distance of over three thousand miles from its mouth.

The steamer Spread Eagle, in connection with the Chippewa, has just completed one of the most remarkable trips on record in the navigation of the Western Rivers, having traversed the Missouri River from its mouth to Fort Benton—a point within sixty miles of the head waters of the Columbia, and three thousand one hundred and twenty miles above the mouth of the Missouri. This is nine hundred miles above the mouth of the Yellow Stone, and seven hundred miles further than any other steamboat has ever been.

The Spread Eagle left St. Louis on the 28th day of May—three days after the Chippewa, and arrived in this port yesterday at 2 o'clock P. M., performing a distance of over 6,200 miles in 79 days.

The Chippewa had very little trouble in ascending the river above the Yellow Stone, excepting on Douphain's Rapids, where they were obliged to haul her through by a line. The Indians were quiet, and expressed themselves well satisfied with their presents. Game above the mouth of the Yellow Stone was very abundant. Large bands of buffalo, elk and mountain sheep might be seen at any moment, together with any quantity of grizzly bear. The trip has been demonstrated to be practicable, the Chippewa having made it in low water. One month earlier, she would have had no difficulty in ascending the rapids above mentioned.

The Spread Eagle had among her passengers a number of mountain men, and tourists, together with a company of seventy-three United States troops, under command of Lieutenants Dana and Weeks, from Fort Randall, bound for Fort Ridgley, to join a company of Fourth Artillery quartered at that post. The troops left on the steamer Pembina for St. Paul last evening.

Mr. Wimer, a celebrated artist of this city, made the trip on the Spread Eagle, and has replenished his portfolio with a variety of sketches of Indian life, and the wild scenery of the Northwest. Mr. Wimer has been in these regions before, and the public are sufficiently acquainted with the productions of his pencil.

THE MINNESOTA WAR.

An Armistice Concluded—No Indications of Blood in the Mississippi River.

[From the St. Anthony News.]

The eyes of the world are now being turned anxiously from the river Po to the river Crow—from Montebello to Monticello! This office has kept a faithful agent, ever since the breaking out of hostilities, to watch the Mississippi and note any change in its color, as it is now conceded that the first great battle will be fought on the banks of the Crow, somewhere in the vicinity of Rockford. This river is now the only channel through which reliable information can reach this city, all the roads being blockaded, and the daily trains of the M. & P. R. R. being, for the present, interdicted.

The intelligence from the seat of war up to Tuesday, revealed the startling fact that about 1,000 of the farmers of Wright Count (State of "Insurrection,") had taken the field armed with reapers, rakes, scythes, hoes and other agricultural weapons, and were making terrible havoc—mowing a clean swath through the country! The innocent Col. Prince and his devoted but unconscious followers were encamped at "Jefferson Barracks," fighting musquitoes. A few were protected by the liquid insect-killer with which they had charged their guns at Crawford's on the way up, and others were applying an ointment which they had extracted from boiling "the Sage of Monticello" so much talked of. At last accounts the musquitoes had the best of it.

DISPATCHES FROM THE ARMY OF OCCUPATION.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, 4 o'clock.

A treaty of peace looms gratefully before the eyes of the belligerents! The Governor has offered to withdraw his troops and "treat." The following is the basis for the arrangement: That the invading troops be withdrawn to Rum River; that one of the Wright County rebels—no matter whom—be arrested by Sheriff Bertram and have a hearing at Monticello—the Governor guaranteeing that he be discharged. It is thought the terms will be complied with.

LATER.—I am confident there will be no important movement until the green corn is sufficiently advanced for general consumption. It is now used to a limited extent and increased activity is already perceptible. The principal rations of the Army at present, are soda crackers and ham, the latter being in such a state of activity as to be capable of self-locomotion—thereby saving a heavy expense to the State in the item of transportation. Perhaps the Allies may accept a battle in position, otherwise they will make no aggressive demonstration until the frosts have driven the musquitoes from the Big Woods. There are several whisky booths in the vicinity of the camp ground.

ANOKA, Wednesday, 12 M.

At five this morning a drum was heard by Col. [illegible] approach of the rebels, ordered the troops under arms. They started immediately for Monticello to punish the miscreants, and landed in Anoka at 10 o'clock—having lost their way. We have been obliged to swim Rum River on account of the ferryman refusing to take orders on the Governor. A member of one of the Irish companies has been taken with the "summer complaint," and hospitaled at Lufkin's, where he can get no liquor.

P. S.!!—A special courier has just arrived from above announcing that the Wright County cannibals are coming. His Excellency, the Governor, having considerable business in St. Paul demanding his immediate attention, is leaving for that city with a fast horse. We are coming on to-day!

Startling News from the Border.

[Special Dispatch to the Missouri Democrat, by Stebbins Line.]

KANSAS CITY, August 16.

The Western Metropolitan Extra has the following:

This (Friday) morning, Mr. Charles A. Hassler, a merchant at Emporia, arrived in this city, bringing news of an alarming nature concerning recent attacks by the Indians upon the settlers of Whitewater and Walnut Rivers, in Butler and Greenwood counties, Kansas Territory.

The number of Kaw, Osage and Camanche Indians in that vicinity, is about 5,000, all warriors. They have lately removed from the Little Arkansas, where they have been collecting for some time back, for the purpose it seems, of driving back the settlers from the frontier. Some interpret their motive to be revenge for the hanging of the two Kaws at Council Grove some time since; but this would hardly seem so, as the point of attack is some seventy miles distant. It may, however, be a plan to decoy the men away so that the point mentioned will fall an easier prey. Certain it is that the people at the Grove have anticipated an attack for some time.

On Thursday morning, 11th inst., a messenger reached Emporia from the Lower Whitewater bringing information that an engagement had taken place between the Indians and whites near the town of Eldorado, in which one hundred of the former and five of the latter were killed.

The same day another messenger arrived from Chelsea, 15 miles above, bringing a note from Mr. N. S. Stoors of that place, stating that the town was surrounded by Indians, and they were momentarily expecting an attack. He appealed for assistance, in order to get his family away. That evening a company of fifty left Emporia, expecting to reach there next morning, a distance of 50 miles.

A man came from Emporia as our informant left, Friday evening, who stated that he had met the company nearly at their destination, and that no attack had yet been made upon that place.

An Awful Retribution.

[From the Louisville Journal, 17th.]

Some time last summer a company of Pike's Peakers left Grayville, Illinois, for the Kansas gold regions. While travelling through the Indian country on their way out, one of the company, a young man of desperate character, from the vicinity of Grayville, named Haynes, declared his determination to shoot the first Indian he met; and unhappily, during the day, they overtook on the prairie a defenceless squaw, when he, in mere wanton wickedness, leveled his gun and shot her dead.

His companions were horror stricken at the blood-thirsty deed, but felt that they had no power to punish him. The tribe to which the squaw belonged was not far distant when the deed was perpetrated. They discovered her lifeless body, and saw at once the manner of her death. They pursued the party of Illinois Pike's Peakers, and in a few hours overtook them and demanded to know who had committed the murder.

The company of five or six Peakers found themselves surrounded by nearly two hundred enraged Indians, who threatened to immolate the whole party if they did not point out and give up the murderer. To save their own lives, they gave up Haynes to their vengeance. He was taken by the Indians to a distance, while his companions tarried on their route to see what would be his fate.

After a while the Indians returned, with their victim literally flayed alive. They had skinned him from head to foot. The wretched being was still alive when brought back to his companions, but in torments worse than hell fire. He lived in agony long enough to tell how he had been tortured, but was soon released by death from unspeakable sufferings.

The Late Burning at Westboro.

WORCESTER, MASS., Aug. 15.

The boy Creden, who was suspected of burning the State Reform School buildings at Westboro, made a full disclosure of the circumstances this afternoon, to J. S. Brown, one of the Trustees, and also to officer Newton of Westboro, who had him in custody. It seems that the thing had been contemplated for some time, and young Credan implicates other boys. Combustible materials had been carried in the pockets of young Credan and placed in the ventilator, so as to be ready for use. A match was obtained from the pockets of Mr. Greenwood, Overseer in the chair shop, and all things being ready, the fire was kindled in the ventilator on Saturday morning, about 5 o'clock. The names of the other boys implicated are suppressed until a full investigation shall have been made by the Trustees into all the circumstances. Young Credan has been lodged in jail here for safe keeping.

LOUIS NAPOLEON'S LAST [illegible]—A corres[illegible]

ILLINOIS OUTDONE

How Missouri Money is Redeemed.

[From the Missouri Democrat, 17th.]

We regret to state that the war between the Banks and the audacious holders of their bills still continues. The weapons used by the antagonists are, however, very different. The billholders present their legal claims, small rectangular pieces of paper, and in response they are mobbed. They ask for money and get rocks in return, but not those metaphorical rocks which returned miners carry in their pockets. In other words, they are literally stoned. The country banks of this State rest on a solid basis of boulders. They are found to be an excellent substitute for coin and bullion. We are informed that on Saturday last the strongest assurances were given in Chillicothe that this novel species of funds would be dealt out liberally to any person who would present bills for redemption to the State Bank, located in that important city. A gentleman from this city, laboring under lamentable ignorance of the financial customs of Chillicothe, presented bills to the amount of $11,000 to the bank. When he had received $300 in silver, he found the banking room filled with the high-spirited Chillicothians, who first threatened to stone him, and next (suddenly ascending to the highest sublimities of the Lynch Code) offered him the agreeable alternative of leaving town in five minutes, or of submitting to a dislocation of the neck by the well known process of hanging. Preferring summary exile from the pleasant haunts of Chillicothe to summary execution from the limbs of one of the trees which adorn the streets of that famous city, he proceeded to St. Louis with all possible dispatch. The bank won a glorious victory, and the multitude rejoiced. Who will dare henceforth to make sacreligious war on the banks, or ask these institutions to redeem their promises to pay? The golden trust of the Hesperides was never more formidably guarded than the golden coins which are coffered in the State Bank of Chillicothe. Unfortunately, the coins belong to the simple-minded citizens of St. Louis, who for a considerable time have been floundering in the absurd error that country banks, by their own promises to pay, broadly engraved on their bills, and by the laws of the State, are obliged to redeem those bills. Experience, we presume, will dispel the illusion. It will also teach them that the presentation of a bill to a country bank, places them instantly in a state of war with that bank, and with the institutions of the State generally—a predicament very trying to law-abiding citizens. We can see no remedy for this state of things, until the people treat the bills of these banks as pictorial pictures; instead of the portraits with which they are now adorned, the grim visage of Judge Lynch should look out from each of the lower corners, connected diagonally by the motto, TOUCH ME AT THY PERIL.

Brutal Murder and Great Excitement at La Crosse.

[From the Janesville Gazette]

We learn from Mr. Lawton, the Sheriff of this county, who has just returned from a visit to La Crosse, the particulars of the brutal murder of Mr. Dennison and the assault upon Mr. West. Mr. West is a son of David West of this city, the father-in-law of Mr. Lawton.

On the morning of the 10th inst., Mr. Dennison, and Mr. West, whose residence is in Minnesota, started on a fishing excursion, and in the course of the day, (about three o'clock in the afternoon) reached Mormon Cooley, about ten miles from La Crosse. While passing quietly up the creek, they were surprised by the barking and appearance of three dogs, accompanied by a German girl, who was setting the dogs on Messrs. Dennison and West. They defended themselves from the attacks of the dogs as well as they could, and the girl ordered the men away. Mr. Dennison endeavored to purchase the privilege of fishing by offering the girl a dollar, and requested her to call off the dogs. This offer she refused, and Mr. Dennison then then sought the father, who was unloading some hay, with two sons, a short distance from the creek, and renewed to the father the offer made to the girl. The offer was also refused, and Mr. D. returned to the creek and informed Mr. West they must leave. While consulting what course to adopt, the father, his wife, two sons and two daughters appeared on the opposite side of the creek, and Mr. Dennison crossed over, and offered two dollars for the privilege of staying a short time and fishing. As he was making this offer, with his hand in his pocket to get the money, one of the girls aimed a blow at him with a pole. He turned to ward off the blow, when the eldest son struck him on the back of the head with the butt of a gun and felled him to the earth. Mr. West immediately started to the aid of Mr. Dennison, and while in the creek, was assailed by two of the women with pitch-forks. One of the forks which was aimed at his breast, he warded off, but the other was run through one of his arms. Mr. West was then knocked down by a blow on the head from a gun in the hands of one of the men, the blow breaking the stock of the gun. After being thus knocked down, the men jumped upon him, pressed their knees upon his chest, seized him by the throat and forced his head under the water. This treatment was continued until his assailants apparently thought him dead, as he had ceased struggling. They then left him, and he raised his head above the water, and attempted to raise his body. As soon as this was discovered, the fiends again assailed him, with greater violence than before, and again left him for dead. When thus left, his face was above the water, and Mr. West remained quiet until the entire party had left the spot and got away some distance, then he revived himself by washing his face and head, and sought Mr. Dennison. Mr. D., was lying insensible, having received several cuts and wounds on the head and other parts of the body (besides the blow from the [illegible] engaged with Mr. West in the creek. Mr. West carried water in his hat to Mr. Dennison and succeeded in partially reviving him. He then left Mr. Dennison and started for the highway, some half mile distant, for aid, when he fortunately met another party of fishers in a buggy, who went after Mr. D. On their return to Mr. D., one of the sons of the German was met with a gun in his hands, seemingly determined to finish the work of murder if it was not already accomplished.

Mr. Dennison was carried to the nearest house, where he received every attention it was possible to render. His skull was badly fractured, the fracture extending from the place where the blow was received to the eye, while the bone where the blow was received was literally crushed. He died the next night at 11 o'clock, his wife having been sent for and present with him when he died. He was unconscious from the time Mr. West reached him to the time of his death.

Mr. West's injuries are very severe. Besides the wounds inflicted by the men, he was mangled by the dogs. His physicians give hope of his recovery, if inflamation can be suppressed. He thinks the water which revived him, alone saved his life.

The greatest excitement prevailed in La Crosse about this occurrence. The criminals have been arrested and are confined in the county jail. The streets are nightly thronged, and while threats are made by Americans of lynching the perpetrators of the outrage, counter threats by the Germans of releasing the prisoners and a desperate defence if the lynching is attempted. The night Mr. Lawton left La Crosse a report was current that 150 armed Germans were on their way to the city. There had previously been a visitation of Germans with the avowed design of releasing the prisoners, but they were met by the American citizens in such a manner as induced them to forego their design. We look with anxiety for further reports from that city.

Interesting From the Mines.

[From the Leavenworth Times.]

We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from Wm. H. Bates, who has just arrived from the mines. Mr. B. is an exceedingly pleasant and intelligent gentleman, in whom the most implicite confidence can be placed. He is originally from New York, (near Utica,) and has spent seven years in California.

He has been in the Kansas mines about seven months, and could easily have obtained $40,000 for his interests. Mr. Bates had specimens with him of the gold that had been obtained. These specimens were worth about $500.

He reports continued discoveries of new leads, and pronounces the region the richest in the world, and thinks there is gold enough there to make the whole country rich. Miners are making $5 to $100 a day to the man, all through the new region, which extends over an area of fifty miles square. Rich quartz has been taken out at a depth of fifty feet and there is no end to the extent of productiveness of the precious metal.

Horace Greeley visited Mr. Bates while in the mining region and was courteously welcomed by the latter.

Mr. Bates reports that the mountain fever was prevailing to some extent in the diggings, and that fifteen persons had died in the localities adjacent to this claim. We would be almost afraid to give the truth concerning the mines, as it would excite distrust. In fact, the truth seems almost too good to be true. Mr. Bates informs us that the miners are afraid to ship their dust, and says that if any express line or banking house possessed their confidence, the gold would come into Leavenworth by the hundred thousands.

Mr. Bates came in with Samuel Leonard and Frank Edwards. They brought in some fifteen pounds of gold. It is their intention to purchase some steam quartz-crushing machines and return as soon as possible.

Mr. Bates thinks the gold region in its half-explored condition, is capable of supporting a population of 500,000, and believes the developments of the next three monts will startle the world.

Horse Railroads in St. Louis.

Yesterday morning the Franklin Avenue Horse Railroad was opened, and operations commenced on it with two large, handsome cars, the only ones that have arrived. The event created a good deal of excitement among the denizens of the crowded street, and a crowd of several hundred persons was assembled all day long at the starting place on Fourth street, to examine the cars, and see "the thing work." The Company had offered a free ride to all who might choose to take one, and at every corner along the road might be seen hearty burghers with their children, old ladies with parasols and baskets, and uncounted and uncountable gatherings of urchins, all frantic to have a ride.

Under the stimulous of the novelty of the event, aided not a little by the free feature of the day's operations, the cars were crowded and crammed, at every trip. They are made to seat about twelve persons on each side, making twenty-four in all; but we took the pains to count the number in one, and found that it contained thirty-eight, over and above the belt of boys who clung to the sides, and whom no expostulations, or threats to "cut behind" from the driver could remove.—St. Louis Eve. News, 16th.

An Opposition Glorification in Tennessee.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 18, 1859.

Mayor Swan has been invited by the leaders of the Opposition party to Tennessee, to visit Memphis, to participate in a grand jubilee in honor of the recent victory achieved in that State, and to be one of the speakers on the occasion.

The Welland Canal to be Enlarged.

We learn from a source in which the utmost confidence can be placed that the Welland Canal is to be enlarged at an early day. Matters have gone so far with the Canadian authorities that this work may be set down as a fixed fact.

The importance of this proposed enlargement to the commerce of the Western Lakes, can scarcely be estimated. It is about equivalent to making an Atlantic port of every important Lake city. The direct trade between the Lake ports and Europe has grown to considerable magnitude, even with the disadvantages under which it now labors. If with vessels of 300 to 350 tons it is found that these long trips can be made with considerable profit to the vessel owners and the shippers, it is clear that much greater advantages will accrue from the use of vessels of 600 tons. The expense of employing a large vessel will be but little over that of a small vessel, whilst the receipts of the trip will be increased from fifty to seventy-five per cent. With the proposed enlargement effected the lumber, grain, beef, and pork of the West will be loaded on vessels at the nearest lake port and be taken to their European destination without tran-shipment, or having to pay the host of commissions and charges now levied at Buffalo and New York. The time will come, and that right speedily, when Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee, and probably Buffalo, will have forwarding houses for the European direct trade just as much a matter of course as they have now for the New York trade, and produce bills on Liverpool will be discounted at our banks just as regularly as they are now on New York.

Our great objection in the minds of English ship owners to the purchase of our vessels, as with the merchants there in regard to the shipment out of fine goods by them, is their small size. When we can get over our large class barques this objection will disappear, and in addition to the establishment of first class freight lines, there will undoubtedly spring up a good purchasing demand for the Lake built vessels, so admirably fitted for the Mediterranean trade, and for other routes where light draught, speed, and admirable sailing qualities are in request.—Cleveland Herald.

TO THE BE-DRUGGED AND Poisoned Citizens of Chicago. You are overrun with a deluge of the vilest compounds in the form of "ALCOHOLIC DRINKS" That ever emanated from that pest of society, the Liquor Mixer. They are sold to you as a luxury, or they are dispensed to you as medicine, and in either case the effect is the same. There is but one way to escape, and that is to use as a luxury or medicine, a safe and reliable stimulant, sold under [illegible] tampered with. Such an art Charles' London Cordial Gin, Which is distilled under inspection of the British Government, is delicately flavored (unlike any other Gin) with some of the most valuable restoratives of the VEGETABLE KINGDOM, And is by far the most healthy beverage extant. The most eminent physicians of Europe and America, not only recommend its use by the hale and hearty, but prescribe it as a medicine where a stimulant is required. The female sex will find it not only a pleasant CORDIAL, but a certain relief in sufferings of a periodical character. Analytical chemists of all ranks pronounce it perfectly pure, and its restorative merits incomparable. Sold only in quart and pint bottles by all Druggists, Grocers, etc. PENTON & CO., 94 Lake street, Opposite Tremont House. jy14

Sanford's Family Cathartic Pills, COMPOUNDED FROM PURE VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, and put up in GLASS CASES AIR TIGHT, AND WILL KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE.

CATHARTIC PILLS.

The Family Cathartic PILL is a gentle but active Cathartic which the proprietor has used in his practice more than twenty years. The constantly increasing demand from those who have long used the PILLS and the satisfaction which all express in regard to their use, has induced me to place them within the reach of all. The Profession well know that different Cathartics act on different portions of the bowels. The Family Cathartic Pill has, with due reference to this well established fact, been compounded from a variety of the purest Vegetable Extracts, which act alike on every part of the alimentary canal, and are good and safe in all cases where a Cathartic is needed, such as Derangements of the Stomach, Sleepiness, Pains in the back and Loins, Costiveness, Pain and Soreness over the whole body, from sudden cold, which frequently, if neglected, end in a long course of Fever, Loss of Appetite, a Creeping Sensation of Cold over the body, Restlessness, Headache, or weight in the head, all Inflammatory Diseases, Worms in Children or Adults, Rheumatism, a great Purifier of the Blood, and many diseases to which flesh is heir, too numerous to mention in this advertisement. Dose, 1 to 3. Price Three Dimes. The Liver Invigorator and Family Cathartic Pills are retailed by Druggists generally, and sold wholesale by the Trade in all the large towns. S. T. W. SANFORD, M. MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM EVER Worn by Kings or Emperors. What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair, Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose in half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

New York, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly, S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd."

Welsh Newspaper office, 13 Nassau-st., April 12, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir: Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

New York, July 25, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KILBY.

Special Notices.

☞ The Great West is the promised land in the eyes of millions, both in the Old World and the New. Its fertile soil and magnificent opportunities for development are the great sources of its attractions. But along its beautiful streams, there lurks malaria of most deadly influence, which is the great drawback of that splendid region, and must remain so for many years to come. Emigrants and others who contemplate settlement in that section, will do well to provide themselves with the only cure that has yet been found efficient, speedy and certain: we mean DR. J. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, which has snatched hundreds from an untimely grave. Their operation upon the digestive organs is soon felt to be beneficient, without being violent.

For sale by Druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

LOTS FOR SALE AT LAKE FOREST, ILLINOIS.
The lots belonging to LIND UNIVERSITY, and now offered for sale present favorable inducements to persons wishing to enjoy the pleasures of country life within an hours ride of the City of Chicago.

They are located at Lake Forest, on the west bank of Lake Michigan, elevated one hundred feet above the level of the Lake, about twenty-six miles north from Chicago, on both sides of the Chicago and Milwaukee Railroads, abound in mineral and other springs and natural beauties, and in the opinion of our best physicians the advantages for a healthful resort and residence are not to be exceeded by any on the sea shore or in the Western country.

A fine Academy building (the preparatory department of Lind University) has been erected the past season, and is now in successful operation in charge of S. F. Miller, A. M.

A new Passenger Depot, a Store and more than a dozen dwellings have been erected within the past year.

In addition to the regular through trains an accommodation train taking passengers on commutation tickets at half the regular fare, leaves Chicago every evening, and returns every morning, thus affording business men an opportunity to spend the day in the city and be with their families at night.

A good hotel has been opened and in successful operation for more than a year past.

The Lake Forest Association have also a few lots, mostly for farming purposes, lying near the town, containing from three to ten acres each, which will be sold at reasonable prices, and on usual time.

The subscriber has, within the past year, sold over twelve thousand dollars worth of the lands belonging to the University and Association, and proposes to sell a few more lots to persons who wish them for immediate improvement and cultivation.

Internal Evidence.

A man of subtle reasoning asked
A peasant if he knew
What is th' internal evidence
That proves his Bible true?
The terms of disputative art
Had never reached his ear;
He laid his hand upon his heart,
And only answered, "Here!"

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. Howitt writes through the London Literary Gazette, to assure the public "that he and Mrs. Hewitt are not George Eliot, nor is 'Adam Bede,' though a genuine midland county man, their offspring."

—The announcement that Charles Dickens intends to visit this country in the Fall for the collection of a new batch of "American Notes," is more than mere rumor. The distinguished author is under engagements to give sixty "Readings," according to a pre-arranged programme, at various points, for the very reasonable remuneration of twenty-five thousand dollars cash at the start, and one-fourth of the net profits of the exhibition.

—Gov. Banks, of Massachusetts, is to ride the celebrated stallion, Green Mountain Morgan, to the State encampment to be held at the old battle-ground in Concord on the 7th, 8th, and 9th of September. The stallion is now owned by a stock company in Williamstown, Vermont.

—A Paris correspondent of the Independence Belge says he is assured that one of the last things uttered in the now celebrated interview at Villafranca was a promise made by the Emperor of Austria to pass some days next Winter at the Tuilleries.

—There died recently at Guanabueva, Cuba, a wealthy Creole planter named Francisco de la O'Garcia, who is said to have left about $4,000,000. He was the intimate friend of Narcisco Lopez, and was arrested during the Pinto troubles. He gave freely of his wealth to aid the cause of Cuban independence, and has bequeathed $100,000 to establish schools at Matanzas, and for other charities.

—At the Queen's ball in London, recently, the Duchess of Richmond carried $150,000 on her head, in the shape of a diamond tiara.

—A man in Auburn has invented "a new governor valve," said to regulate the momentum with great accuracy. The Syracuse Journal suggests that the inventor should send one to Governor Wise.

EXTRAVAGANT DINNERS AT SARATOGA.—One lady is reported to have given a dinner to twenty friends which cost $400, and a New York banker paid $750 for twenty-eight persons. A Southerner, however, surpassed that, he having paid $1,400 for one dinner, the largest private dinner ever given at that fashionable resort.—Boston Journal.

—Parodi with her opera company will appear in Cincinnati on the 22d. They say she has accumulated a large fortune, and contemplated retiring from the stage last Spring, until seized with an ambition to become an opera-manager as well as a prima donna.

—The Fort Smith (Ark.) Times records the re-election of John Ross as Chief of the Cherokees.

There is but little doubt, as to the re-election of John Ross, as Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, there being no opposition. Here we have an instance of the love of power. Ross was elected Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, under the first Constitution, in the fall of 1828, at New Echota, Georgia, and has been the Chief ever since, being re-elected every four years. He was the Chief in 1838 when the whole tribe removed West, and after their settlement here, and the adoption of their present Constitution, was chosen Chief, and so great is his popularity that it is deemed useless, by those opposed to him, to run any person against him. Although he is now over sixty years of age, he still clings to power with a wonderful tenacity, having exercised the office of Chief over thirty years.

Mr. Ross has been a public man among the Cherokees all his life, and we believe he was in power as President of the Cherokee Committee, as early as 1810. He is nearly white, being the descendant of Daniel Ross, a Scotchman, who married a daughter of McDonald, a Scotchman, who married a Cherokee woman. McDonald was at the time of the American Revolution agent for George III., among the Cherokees.

MAJOR CULBERTSON.—Maj. Alexander Culbertson, for twenty-seven years connected with the American Fur Company in the Upper Missouri country, and partner in that opulent company, has dissolved his connection with it. His many friends in this city will be glad to know, that, with his interesting family, he has returned to civilization. He goes in a few days to his farm near Peoria, Ill., and takes with him the best wishes of the many whose confidence and esteem he has so long enjoyed.—Missouri Democrat.

A MODEL CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGE.—We are authorized to announce the names of Gen. O. Hinton as an Independent Democratic candidate for the office of County Judge for Sonoma county—Sonoma County Journal.

Ten years ago, a certain Gen. O. Hinton was an extensive mail contractor in the State of Ohio, and was detected in the most astounding mail robberies ever brought to light in the United States. He was arrested and escaped, and for months eluded the vigilance of the officers, notwithstanding the most thorough pursuit ever known in that country. The whole police system of the State was aroused, rendering it impossible for him to pass from its borders. After several weeks of such vigilance, the wily fugitive was re-arrested, but he had influential and wealthy friends, and a brother-in-law went his bail for $10,000.

This bond Gen. O. Hinton forfeited and escaped to California. Here he was pursued by officer Mills, of Akron, Ohio, and was followed from place to place in California and Oregon, finally escaping, if we mistake not, to the Sandwich Islands. At any rate, the officer was unable to arrest the fugitive, and returned after a fruitless chase, to Ohio. If the candidate for County Judge in Sonoma County is the same Gen. O. Hinton, who robbed the mail in Ohio, it is to be hoped he will not be elected.

MR. SEWARD IN LONDON.—The London correspondent of the New York Times, says:

Mr. Seward has been much sought after here by Whigs, who desire to keep up the old reputation of their party for political hospitality. He does not make the same sort of impression among them as Sumner did when he first visited this country as a lion, and his manner is somewhat unfairly contrasted with that of the late Mr. Prescott, Mr. Everett, and other men of eminence from your side of the water, as if all men's ways of talking and thinking could be the same, as if there were not as great diversities between conspicuous persons of this and every other country. It is said when asked by the Queen what he thought of what he had seen of public life in England, Mr. Seward replied: "Madam, I have come to Europe to study despotism; to which her Majesty rather pointedly replied: "I hope you have found nothing of that kind to study here."

—The 50th birthday of Dr. O. W. Holmes, Autocrat and Professor, falls on the 29th inst. His friends celebrate this golden wedding of his life by a dinner to him at the Revere House.

WESTERN NEWS ITEMS.

MURDERER DEAD.—Peter Arnold, who murdered his three children a few weeks since near Freeport, Illinois, died in prison on Thursday of last week, in Freeport. It was thought he was insane from the effects of the heat at the time of the murder.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Two men, one named Hurbert Gantice, and the other a stranger, were instantly killed at Appleton, Wisconsin, on Monday last, by a log going over the dam at that place, and striking them while at work in an excavation.

NOT SATISFIED.—The acquittal of Rev. Jonathan S. Owen, whose trial for the poisoning of his wife, occupied eleven days at Crawfordsville, Ind., has caused general dissatisfaction in that vicinity. The jurymen who swore that they had formed no opinion as to his guilt or innocence, are known to have publicly stated that they believed him guilty of the crime with which he was charged. There is much feeling in the matter.

TWO MEN BURNED TO DEATH ON SOME MARSH LAND.—The Grand Rapids Enquirer, of Friday last, learned from Capt. Gano that about 50 acres of marsh land, belonging to Mr. Ferry of Grand Haven, and situated on the river bank about twelve miles above the mouth, were burned over on Wednesday last. The remains of two men were found in the ashes, who had evidently been burned to death. They were so badly burned that no trace could be found to indicate who they were, or where they came from.

THRESHING MACHINE ACCIDENTS.—On Tuesday the 9th inst., Harrison Butler, of Clinton Co., Illinois, while engaged in threshing wheat, was caught in the machinery and so seriously injured that no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

—Near Malden, in Bureau Co., on Saturday last, Mr. Samuel Miller, while driving a threshing machine, fell from his seat to the ground and under one of the fore wheels which passed over his head, nearly crushing it. He died the next day.

in contact with the telegraph wires, which compelled him to let off the gas and come down. Another attempt was made by him, but the power to ascend was found unequal to the task, although nearly all the ballast was discharged. Prof. Wise gave place to his son, Charles E. Wise jr., who went up a short distance, but was obliged to descend, it being found that the valve was broken. The Lafayette Journal estimates the number of persons who came to witness the ascension at thirty thousand.

LOW WATER.—The different streams are all falling rapidly as yet, with indications of an unusual low water season. The Illinois especially is low, and if it continues falling for a much longer time at its present rate, navigation must entirely suspend. Capt. Force, of the Belfast, the last boat down from La Salle, reports but seventeen inches on Spring Creek and Tree Top bars, and the river still falling fast. The pilots say that the water has not been so low in this stream since 1853, while some of the people along the river declare that it has not been so low within their recollection. The upper Mississippi, too, continues falling, and the Keokuk packets rub not a little on the sand bars. The Warsaw, which came down yesterday morning, got out her spars all ready for use, but fortunately was not compelled to use them, although they touched pretty hard in several places. The Missouri is still falling.—Alton Courier, 17*th*.

Fast Horses in England and America.

It is said that there are dozens of horses in this country that can beat anp in England for a four mile stretch. Among them are Planet, Nicholas I., Tar River, Fanny Washington, Rupee, Eliza Logan, Minnehaha and Calvert. These are all racers. In regard to trotting horses we are far ahead of all other countries; for, while in England the taste has been, and is, for saddle horses, our taste has inclined to the encouragement and development of the more useful qualities of speed and endurance in harness.

This is particularly the case in the Northern States; and it is curious to observe the ratio in which the speed of trotting horses has been increased by judicious breeding and training. Forty years ago, on the Newmarket course, Long Island, the speed of a mile in three minutes was attained for the first time. Twenty years ago a mile was done for the first time in two minutes and thirty seconds. Last Tuesday Flora Temple, in her race with Princess, performed a mile in two minutes and twenty-two seconds; and her driver confidently asserted that if she had been pushed she would have done it in two minutes and twenty seconds. The quickest time on record before this last feat was two minutes and twenty-four and a half seconds, and this had been made by Flora Temple, Lantern and Ethan Allen. So that in forty years we have gained forty seconds in speed, or at the rate of a second a year.

We see that the taste for trotting matches is coming into existence in England. The first contest of the kind there is advertised to come off on the Liverpool course. It may be taken for granted that some of Mr. Ten Broeck's horses will be entered for it: and we understand that Mr Bevins has sent over, for the same occasion, his trotting horse Mountain Boy, with Sam McLaughlin as driver. This will be an introduction of our system of horse racing; but we do not expect to see it grow much in favor there, for the English, as a people, are much more partial to exercise in the saddle than Americans are—the taste in both cases having its origin in the climate of the respective countries.—N. Y. Herald.

WATER WHEELS.
Vandewater's Recently Improved
Jonval Turbine Water Wheel.
OFFICE 81 SOUTH CLARK STREET,
CHICAGO.
I offer this Improved Turbine Water Wheel to the public with the fullest confidence and assurance of its Superiority Over All Other Wheels,
Without any exception. They are well adapted to (and have been tested in) Mills of all descriptions. They give a very steady and uniform speed, and are well adapted to very high as well as very low heads and falls. They will work well in back water without any material loss of power, and are not troubled with ice, as they are set inside of the forebay and discharged underneath. It requires a small amount of gearing to get up a high speed; costs but little to set up, and runs upon a step that needs no oiling, and will last for years. This wheel is capable of yielding a power of from 70 to 85 per cent. of the whole power of the water (according to the degree of finish of wheel) under high heads and falls, and in all cases it is warranted to work up to the power laid down in the table, and to give satisfaction when properly put up and geared.
State, County and Town territories for sale.

SOMETHING NEW!!!
MITCHELL'S PATENT
Metallic-Tipped Boot and Shoe.
An improvement has been applied to Boots and Shoes, by which a Great Saving in Expense is made. Every Boot and Shoe Dealer knows that Children will wear out at the toe the best constructed shoe in four to six weeks, and that it has hitherto defied the skill of manufacturers to obviate this difficulty.

THE "METALLIC TIP"
meets and overcomes it. A small piece of copper is neatly fastened to the toe of the Boot or Shoe, affording a complete protection to it, and rendering the efforts of the most inveterate stamper ineffectual to kick or wear it out.

We present this invention with the fullest knowledge of and experience in its Practical Utility. Having now for nearly two years been subjected to the severest tests, it has by its own intrinsic merits, actually surmounted every objection that could possibly be brought against it, as the accompanying certificates, which are but a fair average of hundreds of others, will abundantly corroborate. We have no hesitation in saying that the Metallic-Tipped Shoe is destined to entirely supersede, for Children and Youth, the old style; and we consider it a moderate statement, that one pair of the Metallic Tips will outwear two to three pairs of the old style, making a saving of nearly two-thirds in the expense of shoes

UNIVERSITY PROPERTY AT EVANSTON.
The attention of the public is called to the fact that the University has a large amount of property most desirable for residence to dispose of. No place in the entire West offers such facilities for educational purposes. Families wishing to locate with reference to comfort, health, and education will do well to visit this place; especially citizens of Chicago looking to retirement from the dust and noise of the city, will find it to their interest to examine the inducements of this most beautiful suburban village. Desirable lots may be had at reasonable rates on five year's time by simply paying six per cent interest on condition of improvement or on perpetual lease at two per cent. on valuation for first five years, subject to appraisal every five years at six per cent. Parties calling on the subscriber at his place of business, or upon any member of the Faculty of the University at Evanston will receive cordial attention and full information.

Rev. Baxter Dickinson, D. D., and Daughters, from Boston, will open a first class Seminary for Young Ladies the latter part of September next, at Lake Forest, Ill., the seat of Lind University.
The entire responsibility of instruction will devolve upon the Misses Dickinson, who were educated at the best Eastern Institutions, and have had experience in teaching. A limited number of young ladies will be received into the family, and have in all respects, a careful and kind supervision. [From Rev. Dr. Kirk, of Boston.]
Understanding that the Misses Dickinson intend opening a school of the first class, I take great pleasure in congratulating the citizens of Chicago and vicinity on the acquisition of such an educational influence. To natural amiableness, genuine piety, and true refinement, the young ladies of this family add all the attainments and accomplishments necessary to conduct a school of the highest character.
Boston, 1859. EDWARD N. KIRK.
[From Rev. Dr. Patterson of Chicago.]
I have been acquainted with Dr. Dickinson and his family for many years, and knowing the reputation of the Misses Dickinson as ladies of superior culture and attainments, and as successful teachers, I feel assured that they will give the fullest satisfaction to the patrons of their Seminary for young ladies. MONETARY.

THURSDAY EVENING, Aug. 18.

The weather has been cloudy and cheerless during the day, and financial matters have partaken of the general dullness. Exchange is flat at current figures, and the demand limited; but rates remain doggedly at 2½ per cent. premium. [illegible] same figures, with very little changing hands on any terms. Discounts close at legal rates, viz. 10 per cent. per annum. Very little doing outside of the banks, at nominal figures, varying according to the wants of borrowers.

ST. LOUIS.—The Democrat has accounts of the mobbing of an individual who called on the branch of the State Bank of Missouri, at Chili, to redeem their bills, by the people of that town. With mobs in Missouri, and small silver-coin redemption in Illinois, western currency must soon win an unenviable shin-plaster notoriety. By dispatch to Cincinnati we learn that the same paper has the following in regard to the money market of St. Louis:

The State Savings Institution are now charging five per cent. discount on the notes of the Chillicothe branch of the State Bank. Other houses are disposed to do likewise in consequence of the Chillicothians mobbing the Bank Messenger.

The larger Banks are not discounting to any extent—not at all in so great a proportion as some of the smaller houses. They say they are "putting on the brakes" considerably, for fear of "breakers ahead." The market can no longer be called "easy," at least there are unmistakable symptoms of "tightness." Merchants are not being paid up as well as they might be; and they must pay their debts in the East. As the country trade comes in, they will doubtless be paid up, to some extent, as is customary. Currency already, in the natural order of things, is beginning to come in; it is bought generally at ½@1 ₽ cent discount—the latter from outsiders, mostly.

Exchange on the East, though not in so much demand as last week, is still very firm with Savings Institutions and private banks at 1½ premium buying and 1½ selling, for Missouri—with the banks of issue, 1@1½ is the selling rate; the range for specie is ½@¾ premium.

The money market is working easier. The Herald of yesterday morning in regard to the market the day previous, says:—

Money is not active to-day. The discount brokers complain of a scarcity of really desirable paper, and on call the well known brokers are over supplied at 6 to 7, according to security, &c. The bank statement of yesterday was calculated to inspire considerable confidence and to increase the amount of money seeking employment in mercantile paper. If the banks would make three or four more such statements the panic makers would lose their vocation.

CINCINNATI.—The Gazette of this morning says of yesterday's market:

No change was observable in the money market to-day. The regular houses continue to take all the acceptable paper offered at 10 to 12 per cent., and matters are easy for those whose securities come up to the required standard. Paper of a lower grade is negotiated with some difficulty.

There was an increased demand for Eastern Exchange, both from local merchants and correspondents, but it continues to be freely met at ½ prem.

The Asia was telegraphed this morning with Liverpool dates to the 6th inst. Flour was reported dull but unchanged. Wheat had declined 2@3d. Corn easier, but quotations were unchanged. Provisions dull.

The inquiry for Spring Wheat continues active, and the market steady and firm—the receipts of No. 1 Spring being scarcely equal to the demand. Winter Wheat is in better request, and an advance of of 2@3c was paid to-day on No. 1 Red. No. 1 White continues scarce and in demand. The transactions to-day amounted to some 30,000 bushels, at $1.00@1.01 for fair White on track; 82@83c for No. 2 White in store; 87@88c for No. 1 Red in store; 73c for No. 2 Red in store; 76c for No. 1 Spring in store; 67½@68½c for No. 2 Spring; and 51c for old Standard—the market closing firm. Flour was more active to-day for choice brands of Spring Extras, which sold at $3.75@4.00 for new, and $2.75@3.00 for old. Winter extras are very dull and nominal at $4.25@5.30. Corn opened firm at yesterday's prices, but after the receipt of the New York dispatches it declined 2@3c. Sales amounted to 16,000 bushels of all grades, at 60@62c for No. 1 in store, and 58c for No. 2—closing weak. Oats, under a good shipping inquiry, advanced 1c. About 10,000 bushels were sold at 25@26c for No. 1 in store. Rye steady at 56c in store. Nothing doing in Barley. Highwines quiet and nominal at 23@23½c. Alcohol, 52c. Provisions quiet—a lot of 20 brls Rumps were sold at $9.00. Tallow quiet. The first sale of new Timothy Seed was made to-day at $1.75. The crop is said to be good but not large. Potatoes firm. Freights quiet. Cattle dull.

EASTERN COMMERCIAL VIEWS CRITICIZED.—The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday contains the following criticism of the views of Eastern merchants with regard to prices:

There seems to be no confidence at all at the East, and prices are crowded down as if the lowest level touched within the last five years was to be the landing and resting place for the declining currency. An impression seems to prevail that an enormous surplus of wheat will be thrown upon the markets from the West, without regard to what it may bring. This, as we have heretofore intimated, is not in accordance with the calculations of producers, and before the fall season fairly sets in parties who are anticipating heavy supplies at the seaboard will find it necessary to review their opinions. Whatever may be thought as to the principle that is likely to rule in this matter, in view of the fact that a large proportion of the surplus grain now in the country is represented by debts, most of which are over due, the hoarding process will be extensively practised, and shrewd business men will shape their operations in accordance with what is to be, rather than what ought to be. It is also to be remarked that the surplus crops are not in proportion to the increased yield of the harvest of 1859 over that of 1858; for in the latter year a large amount of the crop of 1857 was carried over, while this season the markets were in a great measure bare on the first of July. This is an important fact not to be lost sight of. There is no more reason, therefore, to look for an extremely low currency, than there is to anticipate the re-establishment of famine prices; and hence the stampede in New York is either the result of a panic, or it is caused by information regarding future supplies, that is not reliable. This state of things contributes much to produce the prevailing stagnation in the West, and until the views of traders and producers are brought closer together, no change for the better is to be expected. These parties are now occupying opposite extremes, the first anticipating very low prices, and the second holding for the re-establishment of a higher currency.

Farmers, however, in this section, would sell freely of wheat at $1.00 per bushel, but lower figures they will not submit to, if they can help it. Some of the New York papers talk about $1.00 per bushel as enough for wheat in that market. This would be equal to about 70c here, and it would net the farmer throughout the West an average of 40c to 50c. A financial earthquake might move the crops at those figures, but without the interference of some extraordinary convulsion of the commercial elements, it is hardly probable that farmers will [illegible] a great deal of wheat this season at equal to [illegible].00 per bushel in New York.

THE BARLEY CROP OF 1859.—The following statement of the crop of Barley for 1859 is made up by Mr. Saml. B. Ford of New York and is good authority:—"The present Barley crop having excited an unusual degree of interest, owing in part to the conflicting reports in regard to the prospect of the crop, from the barley growing districts, and perhaps more to the great misapprehension, which prevailed in regard to the crop of last year, I have made extensive enquiries, in regard to the prospect of the present crop, and take pleasure in laying the result of my enquiries before you. In reference to the crop in this State, it is proper to remark that many of the letters were written at the time the Spring Grain was maturing, and that as the weather since has been extremely favorable for maturing the crop, it is probable that the yield will considerably exceed the estimates. My information is derived from reliable sources and from parties who are well informed in regard to the crop in their own neighborhood, and who would have no interest in misrepre[illegible] the proportion of Winter Barley is much greater and the yield is very large, "40 to 60 bushels per acre," and the quality very fine. In some counties the breadth of Spring Green sown is not more than half as much as last year, while in others, "more has been sown than ever before." The crop is generally represented as "standing thin on the ground," but with favorable weather for ripening, the heads are large and the berry plump and full.

I have seen some very choice samples from Wayne, Seneca, and Yates counties. In Lower Canada the breadth of ground sown is said to be greater than ever before, and to promise a larger yield, and of better quality. Upper Canada has about the usual breadth of sowing, and the crop promises to be a large and fine one. Prince Edward's Island will have considerable surplus (two rowed) to send the States. The crop in Illinois and Wisconsin is large, and has been secured in fine condition. Instead of being competitors with the East, for the surplus of Upper Canada, they will have a surplus to send forward. Ohio and Pennsylvania, do not produce enough for their own consumption, but more than the usual quantity was sown in the barley districts, and the crop is good. The present barley crop is undoubtedly one of the largest crops ever raised in this country and Canada, though the tide water receipts may not show as large a quantity as last season, from the fact that there is very little of the old crop remaining in the country, while last year, half of the crop of the previous year was in the hands of the farmers, and came to market with the new crop.

"P. S.—Since writing, I am advised that the heavy rains of last week stained the Spring Barley standing in some sections of the State. The damage done however, will be only to the color. The latest accounts from this State represent the Spring Barley which has been threshed as yielding much better from the straw than the farmers anticipated."
